TAX CUT IS UNLIKELY, DESPITE SURPLUS

Senate OKs Sale Of Excess Wheat

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today approved the annual sale of up to 100 million bushels of government-owned wheat at cut-rate prices for livestock feed.

The vote was 49-31 for the amendment by Sen. Young (R-ND) to the new substitute soil bank bill. It came after a floor fight that split usual party and farm bill lines.

This was the first action of the day under limited debate on the new farm bill and indicated a long and stormy session.

The Senate accepted by voice vote another Young amendment that could prevent a drop in price supports for wheat, corn and peanuts for next year.

Earlier, Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ.) said he would ask the Senate to revise three sections of the farm bill "to improve our relations with other countries."

Smith, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said he had offered three amendments at the suggestion of Secretary of State Dulles and State Department advisers.

Debate began yesterday on the measure, a substitute for a catch-all farm bill which President Eisenhower vetoed April 16 with the contention that it would do more harm than good.

The current bill, somewhat similar to one already passed by the House, contains authority for the soil bank urged by Eisenhower as a means of cutting surpluses by paying farmers to divert some land to grass, trees and similar uses. The bill does not contain the authority Eisenhower sought to make advance payments this year to farmers who agree to put land in the soil bank in 1957.

THE MAIN Senate dispute centers over provisions to boost government price supports on oats, rye, barley and grain sorghums, which are used as livestock feed. Such provisions were approved by the House and the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) contends approval of this section could bring a second veto. Chairman Ellender (D-La.) of the Agriculture Committee argues that commercial corn growers have received preferential treatment from Secretary of Agriculture Benson and that the Senate bill would give other producers similar treatment.

Smith said his amendment would:

1. Knock out a section ordering sale of surplus government-held cotton on world markets at lower competitive prices.
2. Eliminate another provision that would reduce U. S. imports of extra long staple cotton from Egypt and other foreign nations and order export sales at reduced prices of surplus U. S. long staple cotton held by the government.
3. Strike out a two-price plan for rice under which growers would get one guaranteed price for rice used as human food in this country and Cuba and a lower price for that exported or used for livestock feed.

"The cotton export provision could knock the bottom out of world cotton prices and injure many friendly nations," Smith said. "The two-price rice plan would penalize Cuba, which has been our best rice customer."

Many Toll-Free Roads Possible

Bill In Congress Seen As Big Aid To Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP)—Would you like to see Ohio's principal cities connected by toll-free roads like the Ohio Turnpike?

You may if Congress passes the federal aid highway bill of 1956 in its present form. The House already has passed it. The Senate is considering similar legislation.

The goals are the same. And the biggest chunk of money (nearly $25 billion) would be spent on an interstate highway system.

These highways probably will be of the four-lane, divided design. They'll look just like the turnpike, except there won't be toll booths and there will be many more places to turn off.

Present plans call for more than $1 billion in federal money for 1,333 miles of these roads in Ohio. For every dollar of federal funds, Ohio would have to put up only a dime.

IT WOULD take up to 13 years to complete these roads. But with that in mind, it's possible to look at a map at the Bureau of Public Roads and say just where they will be.

For example, you could drive from Cleveland to Columbus without passing through a single town or encountering one stop sign or crossing of any kind. Then you could drive on to Cincinnati in the same fashion.

Or you could make this same kind of travel between:

Toledo and Dayton. Dayton and Cincinnati. Columbus and Wheeling. W. Va. Columbus and Indianapolis. Akron and Columbus. Cleveland and Erie, Pa.

Toledo Jail Break Nipped By Deputies

TOLEDO (AP)—Sheriff's deputies said today that six men have admitted attempting to crash out of the Lucas County jail here by sawing through a cell door.

The attempt was thwarted. A seventh man, recently released from the jail, was arrested last night and admitted smuggling 10 hacksaw blades to his companions, deputies said.

Sheriff's Sgt. William Sloan said two of the six inmates were Marvin Breaton, 34, Toronto, Ont., labeled "an escape artist," and John Marchibroda, 25, Hamilton, Ont. Both men were awaiting sentencing after being convicted of robbing Waterville and Weston banks last year.

Sloan said Breaton told others in the escape plot that after they got out they would rob the Waterville Bank again and "all be rich." The others felt for it, Sloan said.

The sergeant said Jerry E. Huff, 24, Toledo, admitted making an agreement with the six to smuggle in the hacksaw blades for $50. Huff was released from the jail last Saturday after serving 30 days for assault.

Sloan said Huff admitted that he put the blades in a package which was hoisted up to a third floor jail window by the other inmates using a fishline. But a jailer discovered filings on the floor near the cell block doors and the jig was up.

Solons Reverse Trade Ban Stand

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee reversed itself today and voted against a provision that might have barred further U. S. foreign aid to many countries.

Chairman Richards (D-SC) said the group voted to knock out an amendment, adopted yesterday, which would bar U. S. assistance to any country shipping to the Communist bloc strategic materials that America itself does not allow to be shipped to the Reds.

Still to come is a vote on the $3 billion in new arms aid President Eisenhower has asked for the fiscal year starting next July 1. That amount is three times what Congress voted for arms aid last year and looms as the likeliest target for congressmen bent on making cuts in an election year.

The trade restriction amendment, one of a number changing the program Eisenhower asked, could amount to a flat ban on aid to countries making strategic shipments to the Communists. Richards said its meaning was not clear, however, and he had opposed it on that basis.

HE SAID the amendment would "deny aid to any country permitting exports of strategic materials to Iron Curtain countries which the United States does not permit to be exported to such countries."

The 1951 Battle Act makes similar general provisions, but gives the President authority to make exceptions where national security requires.

Rep. Edna F. Kelly (D-NY) said she sponsored the amendment after reading of a proposed British shipment of tractors to the Communist Chinese and plans for further British sales of strategic goods. She said her aim was to strengthen the present Battle Act by removing the President's power to allow exceptions.

The administration has fought such a flat prohibition in the past, and is expected to oppose its inclusion in the measure.

The International Cooperation Administration said Britain is receiving military aid from the United States but is not receiving any economic assistance. Economic aid to all Western European countries stopped several years ago.

Heavy Rains Hurt Farmers In NE Ohio

CLEVELAND (AP)—Heavy rainfall in northeastern Ohio this spring has cost farmers thousands of dollars.

Most critical is the situation in northern Portage County. There, low-lying areas were flooded by the downpour that accompanied high winds causing considerable property damage last Saturday night.

Headwaters of the Cuyahoga River in Geauga and Portage counties Thursday ran yellow with silt washed down by the rain.

Planting has been delayed and what little seed is in the ground is being washed out or is in danger of rotting.

Matt S. Pochedly of Hiram estimated his loss at $400 when rain washed out four acres of early corn in one of his fields. The loss in topsoil washed away from plowed fields also has been heavy.

Dr. E. H. Clarke measured 1.12 inches of rain in a 30-minute period Thursday at the Hiram College weather reporting station. He said rainfall during May had measured 4.93 inches at noon Thursday compared with the normal fall of 3.25 inches for the entire month.

In the Portage County village of Mantua, the rains have cut deep ruts along most of the streets.

Another Hearing Due In Deavertown Fuss Over Teacher

McCONNELLSVILLE (AP)—An attempt will be made Monday night to reach a settlement in the case of a Deavertown High School teacher charged with, among other things, paddling five of his 15-year-old girl pupils.

Jack Eberle, 25, is fighting his ouster from the high school for the paddlings plus accusations of teaching the Bible in class without permission and failing to perform assigned athletic coaching duties.

His attorneys said they plan to present a settlement offer to school board members Monday night. They would not say what the offer was.

Eberle's attorneys conferred yesterday with school board members. It was the fifth session of a hearing on the charges against the teacher.

Bigger Teaching Staff Set for City Schools; Classrooms Are Needed

An increase in the teaching staff of the Washington C. H. schools to take care of the increasing enrollment and to get in line with the 30-pupil classroom unit formula to get an increase in state funds from the School Foundation program, was agreed on by the School Board at its official meeting Thursday night.

Under the plan approved by the board, four and a half (the half is a part-time teacher) teachers would be added to the school faculty. There would be two new teachers for the sixth grade, one for the fifth grade, a half-time art teacher and a remedial reading teacher.

The discussion of the distribution of pupils and the increase in teachers went on for more than two hours. It was based largely on a report of the Teacher Salary Schedule Committee, which has been studying the problem for several weeks.

The board also approved an increase in teacher salaries that would average $400 a year. But just who will get how much of an increase is to be worked out later by the Salary Schedule Committee.

The board, in authorizing the increase in teachers and salaries, figured that the 4½ additional teachers' salaries would amount to $18,000 and that the overall increase would bring the total payroll, including the new teachers, up to $49,600 for a total of 83½ teachers.

But this was only a part of the

10-Year Term Given For Lies

Woman Embezzler Faces More Trouble

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Minnie Mangum, the charitable career woman accused of bilking her employer of nearly $3 million, faced a 10-year prison sentence today but no end to her troubles.

The 52-year-old spinster was convicted in Norfolk Corporation Court yesterday of lying to Virginia's banking regulatory agency of a local firm.

The case served as a prelude to next week's bigger legal battle when Miss Mangum goes on trial for embezzling $1,080,000 from the Commonwealth Building and Loan Assn., which she served as assistant secretary-treasurer.

She also faces 14 other charges, including one accusing her of taking a grand total of $2,884,000 from Commonwealth over a period of 22 years.

All told, she could be given prison sentences totaling more than 200 years.

THE JURY of six men and six women gave her the maximum penalty on the lying conviction.

Miss Mangum, who sat stolidly through the two-day trial, remained expressionless when the verdict was disclosed after an hour and 42 minutes' deliberation. She remained free on $50,000 bond.

Miss Mangum was pictured by the state as stealing her firm's money and using it for lavish gifts to friends and family.

Prosecutor Linwood Tabb depicted Miss Mangum as "one of the most generous people with other people's money" who ever came before the bar of justice.

Dem Senator OKs Stand Of GOP Appointee

Subversive Control Board Member Cain Raps 'Numbers Game'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said today "I'd hate to see" Harry P. Cain dropped from the Subversive Activities Control Board "for telling the truth" about the administration's employee security program.

Cain, who frequently has criticized the program during the last 16 months, made one of his sharpest attacks last night in a Denver speech that sounded as though he did not expect President Eisenhower to reappoint him to the board.

"My usefulness to the President is, I believe, rapidly drawing to a close," the former Republican senator from Washington said.

Cain's term in the $15,000-a-year job expires in August. He was appointed to the post by Eisenhower.

Johnston said he thought Cain's criticisms "have been very beneficial to the administration and to government workers in that they have helped to show some of the mistakes made in the loyalty program."

Johnston is chairman of a Senate Civil Service subcommittee that has conducted a lengthy inquiry into the Eisenhower administration's program to keep any security risks off the federal payroll. A report on its findings is expected early in June.

CAIN, WHO addressed a meeting of the Colorado branch of the American Civil Liberties Union, said he was speaking out in protest against the handling of the security program perhaps "for about the last time" in his present capacity.

Cain hit out at the "numbers game" which Johnston and other Democrats accused Vice President Nixon and other Republicans of playing with the employee security program in the 1954 campaign.

He said the number of employees listed as fired or resigned "should be marked poison and employed with the greatest care."

Cain gave the latest administration figure as 9,700 and added:

"Anyone who employs the numbers without stating that the numbers are subject to a large margin of error is totally without knowledge or ought to have his head examined."

He also said the bare number 9,700 "is the most erroneous, dangerous and misleading government statistic ever made public."

Cain renewed a contention that Eisenhower's advisers have failed to keep the President properly informed about the operation of the program. He said he hoped to prevent Eisenhower "from innocent or inadvertently becoming involved in the numbers game."

Johnston has contended that testimony taken by his subcommittee showed the administration's box scores on security dismissals were "a political hoax." He said more than 90 per cent of the employees listed as fired under the security program actually were discharged under regular procedures.

3 Children Die As Cars Collide Near Van Wert

VAN WERT (AP)—Three children were killed and three other persons seriously injured in a two-car collision yesterday at the intersection of two county roads, three miles south of nearby Venedocia.

Dead are Dorothy May Gallows, 2, passenger in a car driven by her mother, Mrs. Mildred Gallows, 35, of Venedocia; and Douglas Emans, 3, and his sister, Marlene, 4, passengers in a car driven by their father, Merl Emans, 24, Venedocia.

Emans and Mrs. Gallows were in serious condition in a hospital in Lima.

A fourth child, Sheryl Coate, 9, also was taken to the hospital. Attendants there listed her condition as critical.

Medics Say Man Dead Drunk Plus

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Cemetery worker John W. Newton today began serving 35 days in jail for drunken driving. Amazed medical authorities can hardly believe he's alive to serve the term.

Municipal Judge James S. Blaine noted that a blood test given Newton after his arrest showed up as .480 on the scale. The judge observed that a scale reading of .150 is regarded as drunkenness.

County medical authorities testified that an alcoholic content of more than .400 is "deadly."

Suspect Is Held For Thefts Here

Howard Birchfield Faces Grand Jury

Howard Birchfield, 23, residing on the Hays Road, Friday morning was held to the Fayette County grand jury on charges of grand larceny, and will face another charge before the day is over. He is also suspected of other crimes.

Birchfield was arrested at his home late Thursday night by Sheriff Robert McArthur, who laid in wait for him to come home when they visited the place earlier in the night.

Birchfield was charged with stealing tools and mechanical equipment from Walter Seifried of the Camp Grove Road. Since the tools were valued at well over $100 the charge was grand larceny.

Birchfield pleaded innocent to the charge and was taken to the county jail when he could not furnish bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Evans, who had about $300 worth of household goods and tools stolen from a house they were moving into on the State Road on Feb. 13, also found most of their goods in the Birchfield home, Sheriff Hays stated.

Mrs. Evans identified practically everything stolen except the tools and her husband was able to locate part of them.

Sheriff Hays said that Evans would file a breaking and entering charge against Birchfield later Friday.

Birchfield, who was preparing to move to Arizona, is also to be questioned regarding other thefts in the county, it was indicated by Sheriff Hays.

Cleveland Due To Get Clinton Air Squadron

CLEVELAND (AP)—Maj. Gen. Roger J. Browne, commander of the 1st U. S. Air Force, says a reserve troop carrier squadron will be moved into Cleveland Hopkins Airport by next December.

The general, here to attend an Armed Forces Day luncheon, said the 375th Troop Carrier Squadron of the 302nd wing would be transferred here from Clinton County Airport near Wilmington.

He said the squadron would use one of two hangars at headquarters of the old 433rd troop carrier wing at Schlegel Air Force Base. The Cadillac tank plant is now using the hangar for storage and maintenance.

It was announced that the squadron will move out of Cleveland following completion of an Air Force facility in the Akron-Canton area, possibly within the next two or three years.

The city of Cleveland has granted the squadron use of Cleveland Hopkins Airport runways provided the field be used only as a temporary measure until the Air Force gets its own base and that the squadron will not interfere with regular air traffic.

Lawyers Oppose Payroll Tax Limit

TOLEDO (AP)—The council of delegates of the Ohio State Bar Assn. has voted against supporting a proposed state law to make payroll taxes uniform and limit them to one per cent unless they were approved by 55 per cent of the voters.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche vetoed a similar bill passed by the General Assembly last year.

The council supported a resolution to add another federal judge to northern Ohio.

Congress Told Treasury To Be Well In Black

$1.8 Billion Income Over Expenses Seen For Nation June 30

WASHINGTON (AP)—Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex.) said today he regards a 1956 tax cut as "a possibility but not a probability" even though the prospective mid-year surplus has been boosted by $1½ billion.

That seemed the consensus among other congressional leaders in the wake of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey's announcement last night that the June 30 federal surplus is now estimated at $1.8 billion. The previous administration calculation, in January, was $230 million.

Key members of both parties on the House Ways and Means Committee, which initiates tax legislation, for the most part supported President Eisenhower's stand for applying any such surplus to paying off the national debt ahead of tax reduction.

Democratic leaders, however, were keeping a sharp eye on future fiscal moves of the Eisenhower administration.

They were ready to move quickly with tax-cutting legislation of their own if the administration should indicate any intention of initiating a tax reduction.

THE NEW SURPLUS estimate, sent to congressional leaders by Humphrey and Budget Director Percival Brundage, came as no surprise to Capitol Hill, where booming national income and tax receipts had been carefully noted.

Only a few hours earlier, congressional tax experts forecast a surplus of $2.3 billion for 1956 and a surplus of $2.2 billion for next year. Humphrey made no forecast for fiscal 1957, starting July 1.

"A balanced budget, for which the President has been striving for three years, now appears assured for the 1956 fiscal year," Humphrey and Brundage said.

"On the basis of our new estimates it is expected that budget receipts will total $67.7 billion, budget expenditures $65.9 billion, resulting in an estimated budget surplus for 1956 of one billion, 828 million dollars, which would make a most welcome reduction in our huge national debt."

As compared with the figures in Eisenhower's January budget message, estimated federal income and spending both were up, the former more than the latter.

Although seemingly in agreement with the administration on tax plans, Democrats didn't close the door against a possibility of any tax relief this year.

Democratic House Leader McCormack of Massachusetts said: "I have never foreclosed the possibility of a tax cut for the lower income tax groups."

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla.) said the prospect of a budget surplus "justifies Congress taking another look at the tax-cutting picture." Kerr serves on the tax-handling Finance Committee.

Rep. Mills (D-Ark.), second ranking Democrat on the Ways and Means Committee, cautioned of possible inflationary dangers in a tax cut now, and favored applying the surplus to payment on the national debt.

Gasoline Blasts Kill 2 Firemen

GALENA, Md. (AP)—A series of explosions and fire wrecked a gasoline bulk storage plant in this small Maryland town today, killing two firemen and injuring eight others.

Two big explosions and a number of smaller ones rocketed through four tanks of the Kent Oil Co., situated near the center of this town of 400.

State police identified the dead as Richard Lockwood Loller, 38, of Chesapeake City, and Harry Robert Brice, 25, of Betterton.

Formal opening of the new plant of the Ohio Water Service Company here, and notation that the original water system here was established in 1889, brings to mind that the Fayette County Court House and many of the business places and "modern" homes erected prior to the installation of the water works here, were forced to provide their own water storage supplies where drinking, toilet and bath water facilities were in use.

For instance a huge tank, lined with lead about one-eighth of an inch thick, was placed in the attic in the west side of the Court House. Water was pumped into the tank and furnished drinking water for the offices and for the toilets. Some of the business houses (and they were in the minority) had their own water supplies, derived from wells on the premises, just as the water for the Court House came from a well on the lawn.

The larger residences also had their own water storage tanks in the upper portion of the houses.

There is still a large enclosure in the attic of the former Morris Sharp property, which is to become the Fayette County Museum, at the junction of Columbus and Washington avenues with Court Street, which housed the metal tank to supply water. Some of the old down pipes are still in evidence in a boxed enclosure extending into the lower part of the house, which was built in 1874 and 1875.

A fourth child, Sheryl Coate, 9, also was taken to the hospital. Attendants there listed her condition as critical.

10-Year Term Given For Lies

Woman Embezzler Faces More Trouble

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Minnie Mangum, the charitable career woman accused of bilking her employer of nearly $3 million, faced a 10-year prison sentence today but no end to her troubles.

The 52-year-old spinster was convicted in Norfolk Corporation Court yesterday of lying to Virginia's banking regulatory agency of a local firm.

The case served as a prelude to next week's bigger legal battle when Miss Mangum goes on trial for embezzling $1,080,000 from the Commonwealth Building and Loan Assn., which she served as assistant secretary-treasurer.

She also faces 14 other charges, including one accusing her of taking a grand total of $2,884,000 from Commonwealth over a period of 22 years.

All told, she could be given prison sentences totaling more than 200 years.

THE JURY of six men and six women gave her the maximum penalty on the lying conviction.

Miss Mangum, who sat stolidly through the two-day trial, remained expressionless when the verdict was disclosed after an hour and 42 minutes' deliberation.

She remained free on $50,000 bond. Miss Mangum was pictured by the state as stealing her firm's money and using it for lavish gifts to friends and family.

Prosecutor Linwood Tabb depicted Miss Mangum as "one of the most generous people with other people's money" who ever came before the bar of justice.

Bigger Teaching Staff Set for City Schools; Classrooms Are Needed

An increase in the teaching staff of the Washington C. H. schools to take care of the increasing enrollment and to get in line with the 30-pupil classroom unit formula to get an increase in state funds from the School Foundation program, was agreed on by the School Board at its official meeting Thursday night.

Under the plan approved by the board, four and a half (the half is a part-time teacher) teachers would be added to the school faculty. There would be two new teachers for the sixth grade, one for the fifth grade, a half-time art teacher and a remedial reading teacher.

The discussion of the distribution of pupils and the increase in teachers went on for more than two hours. It was based largely on a report of the Teacher Salary Schedule Committee, which has been studying the problem for several weeks.

The board also approved an increase in teacher salaries that would average $400 a year. But just who will get how much of an increase is to be worked out later by the Salary Schedule Committee.

The board, in authorizing the increase in teachers and salaries, figured that the 4½ additional teachers' salaries would amount to $18,000 and that the overall increase would bring the total payroll, including the new teachers, up to $49,600 for a total of 83½ teachers.

But this was only a part of the overall problem faced by the board.

CONSIDERABLE time was spent in trying to arrange to get five additional classrooms.

Three were accounted for—provided vocational agriculture and auto mechanics courses are dropped—in the Central elementary school section of the high school building.

But the other two presented a big question mark. Two third grade classes are now being held in Grace Methodist Church and the board was seeking some way to get these back into a regular school building. This, several members pointed out, would effect a saving of around $250 a month.

Discontinuance of the vocational agriculture and auto mechanics departments was virtually decided on when the board found it had no room for rural tuition students.

It has been indicated—with a statement that the doors were closed but not locked to tuition students—that the board would be willing to do its utmost to open the doors to the rural students on an emergency basis if a cooperative school program can be worked out for one high school for the entire county.

THE BOARD authorized its attorney, William Junk, to advise the state's attorney general that it was ready to give him additional information concerning a petition for formation of a Citizens Committee to study the school situation. The petition referred to was one that

Subversive Control Board Member Cain Raps 'Numbers Game'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said today "I'd hate to see" Harry P. Cain dropped from the Subversive Activities Control Board "for telling the truth" about the administration's employee security program.

Cain, who frequently has criticized the program during the last 16 months, made one of his sharpest attacks last night in a Denver speech that sounded as though he did not expect President Eisenhower to reappoint him to the board.

"My usefulness to the President is, I believe, rapidly drawing to a close," the former Republican senator from Washington said.

Cain's term in the $15,000-a-year job expires in August. He was appointed to the post by Eisenhower.

Johnston said he thought Cain's criticisms "have been very beneficial to the administration and to government workers in that they have helped to show some of the mistakes made in the loyalty program."

Johnston is chairman of a Senate Civil Service subcommittee that has conducted a lengthy inquiry into the Eisenhower administration's program to keep any security risks off the federal payroll. A report on its findings is expected early in June.

CAIN, WHO addressed a meeting of the Colorado branch of the American Civil Liberties Union, said he was speaking out in protest against the handling of the security program perhaps "for about the last time" in his present capacity.

Cain hit out at the "numbers game" which Johnston and other Democrats accused Vice President Nixon and other Republicans of playing with the employee security program in the 1954 campaign.

He said the number of employees listed as fired or resigned "should be marked poison and employed with the greatest care."

Cain gave the latest administration figure as 9,700 and added:

"Anyone who employs the numbers without stating that the numbers are subject to a large margin of error is totally without knowledge or ought to have his head examined."

He also said the bare number 9,700 "is the most erroneous, dangerous and misleading government statistic ever made public."

Cain renewed a contention that Eisenhower's advisers have failed to keep the President properly informed about the operation of the program. He said he hoped to prevent Eisenhower "from innocent or inadvertently becoming involved in the numbers game."

Johnston has contended that testimony taken by his subcommittee showed the administration's box scores on security dismissals were "a political hoax." He said more than 90 per cent of the employees listed as fired under the security program actually were discharged under regular procedures.

3 Children Die As Cars Collide Near Van Wert

As Cars Collide Near Van Wert

VAN WERT (AP)—Three children were killed and three other persons seriously injured in a two-car collision yesterday at the intersection of two county roads, three miles south of nearby Venodicia.

Dead are Dorothy May Galloway, 2, passenger in a car driven by her mother, Mrs. Mildred Galloway, 35, of Venodicia; and Douglas Emans, 3, and his sister, Marlene, 4, passengers in a car driven by their father, Merl Emans, 24, Venodicia.

Emans and Mrs. Galloway were in serious condition in a hospital in Lima.

Medics Say Man Dead Drunk Plus

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Cemetery worker John W. Newton today began serving 55 days in jail for drunken driving. Amazed medical authorities can hardly believe he's alive to serve the term.

Municipal Judge James S. Blaine noted that a blood test given Newton after his arrest showed up as .480 on the scale. The judge observed that a scale reading of .150 is regarded as drunkenness.

County medical authorities testified that an alcoholic content of more than .400 is "deadly."

Suspect Is Held For Thefts Here

Howard Birchfield Faces Grand Jury

Howard Birchfield, 23, residing on the Hays Road, Friday morning was held to the Fayette County grand jury on charges of grand larceny, and will face another charge before the day is over. He is also suspected of other crimes.

Birchfield was arrested at his home late Thursday night by Sheriff Robert McArthur, who laid in wait for him to come home when they visited the place earlier in the night.

Birchfield was charged with stealing tools and mechanical equipment from Walter Seifried of the Camp Grove Road. Since the tools were valued at well over $100 the charge was grand larceny.

Birchfield pleaded innocent to the charge and was taken to the county jail when he could not furnish bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Evans, who had about $300 worth of household goods and tools stolen from a house they were moving into on the State Road on Feb. 13, also found most of their goods in the Birchfield home, Sheriff Hays stated.

Mrs. Evans identified practically everything stolen except the tools and her husband was able to locate part of them.

Sheriff Hays said that Evans would file a breaking and entering charge against Birchfield later Friday.

Birchfield, who was preparing to move to Arizona, is also to be questioned regarding other thefts in the county, it was indicated by Sheriff Hays.

Cleveland Due To Get Clinton Air Squadron

CLEVELAND (AP)—Maj. Gen. Roger J. Browne, commander of the 1st U. S. Air Force, says a reserve troop carrier squadron will be moved into Cleveland Hopkins Airport by next December.

The general, here to attend an Armed Forces Day luncheon, said the 375th Troop Carrier Squadron of the 302nd wing would be transferred here from Clinton County Airport near Wilmington.

He said the squadron would use one of two hangers at headquarters of the old 433rd troop carrier wing at Schlegel Air Force Base. The Cadillac tank plant is now using the hanger for storage and maintenance.

It was announced that the squadron will move out of Cleveland following completion of an Air Force facility in the Akron-Canton area, possibly within the next two or three years.

The city of Cleveland has granted the squadron use of Cleveland Hopkins Airport runways provided the field be used only as a temporary measure until the Air Force gets its own base and that the squadron will not interfere with regular air traffic.

Lawyers Oppose Payroll Tax Limit

TOLEDO (AP)—The council of delegates of the Ohio State Bar Assn. has voted against supporting a proposed state law to make payroll taxes uniform and limit them to one per cent unless they were approved by 55 per cent of the voters.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche vetoed a similar bill passed by the General Assembly last year.

The council supported a resolution to add another federal judge to northern Ohio.

Congress Told Treasury To Be Well In Black

$1.8 Billion Income Over Expenses Seen For Nation June 30

WASHINGTON (AP)—Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex) said today he regards a 1956 tax cut as "a possibility but not a probability" even though the prospective midyear surplus has been boosted by $1½ billion.

That seemed the consensus among other congressional leaders in the wake of Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey's announcement last night that the June 30 federal surplus is now estimated at $1.8 billion. The previous administration calculation, in January, was $230 million.

Key members of both parties on the House Ways and Means Committee, which initiates tax legislation, for the most part supported President Eisenhower's stand for applying any such surplus to paying off the national debt ahead of tax reduction.

Democratic leaders, however, were keeping a sharp eye on future fiscal moves of the Eisenhower administration.

They were ready to move quickly with tax-cutting legislation of their own if the administration should indicate any intention of initiating a tax reduction.

THE NEW SURPLUS estimate, sent to congressional leaders by Humphrey and Budget Director Percival Brundage, came as no surprise to Capitol Hill, where booming national income and tax receipts had been carefully noted.

Only a few hours earlier, congressional tax experts forecast a surplus of $2.3 billion for 1956 and a surplus of $2.2 billion for next year. Humphrey made no forecast for fiscal 1957, starting July 1.

"A balanced budget, for which the President has been striving for three years, now appears assured for the 1956 fiscal year," Humphrey and Brundage said.

"On the basis of our new estimates it is expected that budget receipts will total $67.7 billion, budget expenditures $65.9 billion, resulting in an estimated budget surplus for 1956 of one billion, 828 million dollars, which would make a most welcome reduction in our huge national debt."

As compared with the figures in Eisenhower's January budget message, estimated federal income and spending both were up, the former more than the latter.

Although seemingly in agreement with the administration on tax plans, Democrats didn't close the door against a possibility of any tax relief this year.

Democratic House Leader McCormack of Massachusetts said: "I have never foreclosed the possibility of a tax cut for the lower income tax groups."

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla) said the prospect of a budget surplus "justifies Congress taking another look at the tax-cutting picture." Kerr serves on the tax-handling Finance Committee.

Rep. Mills (D-Ark), second ranking Democrat on the Ways and Means Committee, cautioned of possible inflationary dangers in a tax cut now, and favored applying the surplus to payment on the national debt.

Gasoline Blasts Kill 2 Firemen

GALENA, Md. (AP)—A series of explosions and fire wrecked a gasoline bulk storage plant in this small Maryland town today, killing two firemen and injuring eight others.

Two big explosions and a number of smaller ones rocketed through four tanks of the Kent Oil Co., situated near the center of this town of 400.

State police identified the dead as Richard Lockwood Loller, 38, of Chesapeake City and Harry Robert Brice, 25, of Betterton.

Camp Counsellors Hear State Leaders

A discussion of the "Responsibilities of Counsellors," led by one of the state's top camping leaders, highlighted a meeting of 20 junior 4-H camp counsellors held at the Extension Office here Thursday evening.

Guest of the evening was Clair Young, assistant State 4-H Club leader, who led the discussion.

The meeting was held to start making plans for the Fayette County Junior Camp, set for June 18

WHS Seniors Begin Commencement Week

Commencement week activities for the 129 seniors of Washington C. H. High School today were in full swing.

Although the seniors have been building up for this for some time, they got going under a full head of steam Thursday. They started out with the custom a r y senior breakfast Thursday morning at Grace Methodist Church. This was a "Dutch treat" affair and all but one of the class bought a ticket for it.

The senior breakfast, which started at 7:15, had a typical ham and eggs menu. At the tables with the students were about 25 of the high school teachers.

The senior breakfast was strictly social; the program came an hour later in the high school auditorium.

This was something new and Prin. John Trace said "it worked out fine."

The entire Class Night program was given, with one exception. Prin. Trace explained that it was decided to present the Class Night program at the special senior assembly because there was never any place left for the students at the regular Class Night because the parents, relatives and friends of the senior usually filled the auditorium.

CLASS NIGHT — the regular Class Night — is to be next Tuesday night; the program is to be repeated then primarily for parents, relatives and friends of the seniors.

For the Class Night program Thursday, Carol June Wilson gave the class history; John McWilliams made the prophesy and the will was read by Ronald Lee Whitaker.

There was a cornet solo by Larry Bishop and the Girls' Ensemble sang "Count Your Blessings." In the ensemble were Jean Sward, Phyllis Fisher, Diana Everhart, JoAnn Williamson, Joan Willis and Sharon Neff.

The one change in the program that is to be given in a repeat performance was that on Thursday, Hugh Lentz, the vice president, gave the farewell address. Next Tuesday night, the farewell address will be given by Dick Anders, the president.

For the senior assembly Thursday, the class marched to the seats down front reserved for it singing the processional, "Lead On, O King Eternal," just as it will next Tuesday night.

Tuesday night's program is to through 23 at Camp Clifton.

Each year, a group of members of the Junior Leadership Club is selected by the 4-H Council Camp Committee to act as "moms" and "dads" to the junior campers.

Counsellors will be Mrs. Joe Loudner, Larry Roush, Marilyn Writsel, Mrs. Jesse Crago, Mrs. Ruth Sheeley, Gene Gustin, Jeanne Coil, Joan Bonham, Marty Christopherson, Pat Scott, Mrs. Frank Dill, Jo Reiff, Marilyn Heistand, Roger Bonham, Bob Montgomery, Roger Sollars, Carolyn Crafo, Dave Whiteside, Joan Little and Jackie Hoppes.

Phil Grover, Associate County Agent, who will act as camp director, presided over the meeting.

start at 8 o'clock, the time set for the start of all the ceremonies connected with the graduation.

The Senior Dance is Friday (to night) in the high school gymnasium, but because regular class sessions for the rest of the high school students will be held next week, an other change has been made in the routine of previous years.

IN THE past the Senior Dance has been the Class Night dance and was held after Class Night.

This year there will be no dance after next Tuesday's Class Night; it will have been held tonight as the Senior Dance.

After the Senior Dance, there is to be another big party at the Country Club, sponsored by the parents of the seniors. This was arranged to give the exuberant young people some place to go here, so they would not want to go to night spots in other cities.

The Baccalaureate service is to be held Sunday night in the high school auditorium with Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly delivering the Baccalaureate sermon.

The seniors will make their appearance then in caps and gowns. After Baccalaureate will come the Commencement—the end of high school days and the commencement of a new phase of life.

Dr. Will W. Orr, president of Westminster College at New Wilmington, Pa. is to give the Commencement address. Dr. Orr, a minister and educator, is widely known as a speaker.

School Board

was filed with the clerk of the Fayette County Board, W. J. Hill, prior to the consolidation of the Paint, Jefferson and Bloomingburg districts with the Miami Trace District.

After going over the report of a committee of school board members, Elmer Reed, Milbome Flee and W. A. Lovell, and Supt. W. A. Smith, the board decided that it would submit a bond issue proposal for school construction at the November election.

The amount of the bond issue to be sought will not be determined, the board decided, until after the board meets with architects the evening of May 23.

The Salary Schedule Committee is to meet the afternoon of that same day to try to work on the increases according to experience and qualification of the individual teachers. On that committee with Reed and Lovell of the School board are three teachers, Miss Marjorie Evans and Leo Whiteside, and Supt. Smith.

The board figures the needs at 8 rooms to replace the Eastside School, 14 rooms to reduce the load, provide for increase in enrollment and restore the Sunnyside School auditorium (now two classrooms), three rooms for kindergarten and two rooms for special teaching—a total of 27 new classrooms.

JUST WHERE the new classrooms would be will not be determined until after a future study of the population and other conditions is made.

The board has an agreement with the Ohio Water Service Co. to buy 29 1/2 acres on Elm Street for a school building, if a bond issue is approved. One new building might be put up there. More than half of that tract, incidentally, is outside the city limits.

A contract was offered to Mrs. Jocelyn Harper for an elementary teacher. She has been teaching the fifth grade at Jeffersonville. She holds a certificate from Western College for Women and Wilmington College.

The board also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Olive Woodyard the head of the home economics department. It is effective July 31. The Woodyard family is moving to Lancaster where he is connected with the Anchor-Hocking Glass Co.

The list of 129 seniors for graduation next week also was approved by the board.

Payment of routine bills amounting to $4,025 was authorized.

The board members had been provided with a full agenda and explanations of the salary schedule and a report on the committee visits to other schools several days ago to give them an opportunity to study them before meeting.

Camp Counsellors Hear State Leaders

A discussion of the "Responsibilities of Counsellors," led by one of the state's top camping leaders, highlighted a meeting of 20 junior 4-H camp counsellors held at the Extension Office here Thursday evening.

Guest of the evening was Clair Young, assistant State 4-H Club leader, who led the discussion. The meeting was held to start making plans for the Fayette County Junior Camp, set for June 18

WHS Seniors Begin Commencement Week

Commencement week activities for the 129 seniors of Washington C. H. High School today were in full swing.

Although the seniors have been building up for this for some time, they got going under a full head of steam Thursday. They started out with the custom a senior breakfast Thursday morning at Grace Methodist Church. This was a "Dutch treat" affair and all but one of the class bought a ticket for it.

The senior breakfast, which started at 7:15, had a typical ham and eggs menu. At the tables with the students were about 25 of the high school teachers.

The senior breakfast was strictly social; the program came an hour later in the high school auditorium.

This was something new and Prin. John Trace said "it worked out fine."

The entire Class Night program was given, with one exception. Prin. Trace explained that it was decided to present the Class Night program at the special senior assembly because there was never any place left for the students at the regular Class Night because the parents, relatives and friends of the senior usually filled the auditorium.

CLASS NIGHT — the regular Class Night — is to be next Tuesday night; the program is to be repeated then primarily for parents, relatives and friends of the seniors.

For the Class Night program Thursday, Carol Jane Wilson gave the class history; John McWilliams made the prophecy and the will was read by Ronald Lee Whitaker.

There was a cornet solo by Larry Bishop and the Girls' Ensemble sang "Count Your Blessings." In the ensemble were Jean S word, Phyllis Fisher, Diana Everhart, JoAnn Williamson, Joan Willis and Sharon Neff.

The one change in the program that is to be given in a repeat performance was that on Thursday, Hugh Lentz, the vice president, gave the farewell address. Next Tuesday night, the farewell address will be given by Dick Anders, the president.

For the senior assembly Thursday, the class marched to the seats down front reserved for it singing the processional, "Lead On, O King Eternal," just as it will next Tuesday night.

Tuesday night's program is to through 23 at Camp Clifton.

Each year, a group of members of the Junior Leadership Club is selected by the 4-H Council Camp Committee to act as "moms" and "dads" to the junior campers.

Counsellors will be Mrs. Joe Loudner, Larry Roush, Marilyn Writzel, Mrs. Jesse Crago, Mrs. Ruth Sheeley, Gene Gustin, Jeanie Coil, Joan Bonham, Mary Christopherson, Pat Scott, Mrs. Frank Dill, Jo Reiff, Marilyn Heistand, Roger Bonham, Bob Montgomery, Roger Sollars, Carolyn Crafo, Dave Whiteside, Joan Little and Jackie Hoppes.

Phil Grover, Associate County Agent, who will act as camp director, presided over the meeting.

start at 8 o'clock, the time set for the start of all the ceremonies connected with the graduation.

The Senior Dance is Friday (to night) in the high school gymnasium, but because regular class sessions for the rest of the high school students will be held next week, another change has been made in the routine of previous years.

IN THE past the Senior Dance has been the Class Night dance and was held after Class Night.

This year there will be no dance after next Tuesday's Class Night; it will have been held tonight as the Senior Dance.

After the Senior Dance, there is to be another big party at the Country Club, sponsored by the parents of the seniors. This was arranged to give the exuberant young people some place to go here, so they would not want to go to night spots in other cities.

The Baccalaureate service is to be held Sunday night in the high school auditorium with Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly delivering the Baccalaureate sermon.

The seniors will make their appearance then in caps and gowns.

After Baccalaureate will come the Commencement—the end of high school days and the commencement of a new phase of life.

Dr. Will W. Orr, president of Westminster College at New Wilmington, Pa. is to give the Commencement address. Dr. Orr, a minister and educator, is widely known as a speaker.

School Board

was filed with the clerk of the Fayette County board, W. J. Hilty, prior to the consolidation of the Paint, Jefferson and Bloomingburg districts with the Miami Trace District.

After going over the report of a committee of school board members, E. L. Reed, Milborne Flee and W. A. Lovell, and Supt. W. A. Smith, the board decided that a proposal for school construction at the November election.

The amount of the bond issue to be sought will not be determined, the board decided, until after the board meets with architects the evening of May 23.

The Salary Schedule Committee is to meet the afternoon of that same day to try to work on the increases according to experience and qualification of the individual teachers. On that committee with Reed and Lovell of the School board are three teachers, Miss Marjorie Evans and Leo Whiteside, and Supt. Smith.

The board figures the needs at 8 rooms to replace the Eastside School, 14 rooms to reduce the load, provide for increase in enrollment and restore the Sunnyside School auditorium (now two classrooms), three rooms for kindergarten and two rooms for special teaching—a total of 27 new classrooms.

JUST WHERE the new classrooms would be will not be determined until after a future study of the population and other conditions is made.

The board has an agreement with the Ohio Water Service Co. to buy 29 1/4 acres on Elm Street for a school building, if a bond issue is approved. One new building might be put up there. More than half of that tract, incidentally, is outside the city limits.

A contract was offered to Mrs. Jocelyn Harper for an elementary teacher. She has been teaching the fifth grade at Jeffersonville. She holds a certificate from Western College for Women and Wilmington College.

The board also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Olive Woodyard, the head of the home economics department. It is effective July 31. The Woodyard family is moving to Lancaster where he is connected with the Anchor-Hocking Glass Co.

The list of 129 seniors for graduation next week also was approved by the board.

Payment of routine bills amounting to $4,025 was authorized.

The board members had been provided with a full agenda and explanations of the salary schedule and a report on the committee visits to other schools several days ago to give them an opportunity to study them before meeting.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: In a city where the female outnumbers the male by a large proportion, what chance does a woman in her forties, with few contacts, have to find social prospects? I know much depends upon the woman herself, and actually I don't have much difficulty socializing, where some opportunity exists.

The financial outlay on cruises, trips, etc., can be enormous, in just speculating.

I would like to settle in a city less crowded and less lonely; and, as a social service worker, without family ties, I feel free to make the change. I've looked in the almanac, but it offers no guidance—or maybe I don't know how to use it properly.

How do you learn the average age, occupation, and status of persons in a given city? I suppose it is this exact kind of information that I need to know, before rushing off to unknown parts.

Do you think this kind of question is foolish? I mean, if a woman really wants to meet a man, can she meet him, anywhere?

DEAR P. R. It may be a little out of date, in certain tables of information, but Dr. Clifford Adams' book, "How to Pick a Mate" (Putnam), first published in 1946, contains a lot of man-hunt information that should be useful to you.

Among other things, the book lists the 10 best and 10 worst states in the United States (as of 1946), for husband-hunting women. Also the 20 best cities for the purpose; and the 20 cities most to be avoided.

Of the 10 best states for corraling a man, all are West of the Mississippi.

Dr. Adams gives husband-hunters a psychological shot in the arm as follows: "If your (marriage) expectancy rating is low do not become pessimistic. That's the worst thing that could happen. Rather decide what you want in a mate, find where such a mate exists, establish friendships that will lead to introductions, make yourself attractive to possible mates by studying their wants and needs and appearing to fill them. This is a formula that will get almost anyone a mate if he or she really wants one."

You are rather tragically isolated from human fellowship, if actually you never meet a man, an eligible man, in social encounters, in the big city from which you write. So perhaps it would be further helpful if you summoned the courage to discuss your loneliness with a psychiatric counselor, to discover why you are deprived of friends with whom to circulate.

M. H. Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Health For All

SELF-CONTROL

Most people agree that self-control is a fine virtue. Without self-control on our part and on the part of others, life could be very unpleasant indeed.

But in time of illness we learn that self-control is important not only for pleasant relationships but also for our very survival. If we have a bad cold we don't question the wisdom of staying indoors and resting; we would never think of using a broken arm or leg until the doctor tells us we may. These are forms of self-control.

Tuberculosis is a disease that calls for a maximum of self-control for it may require obeying strict rules not for a few days or weeks but for years. Because tuberculosis is not a disease that runs a short course and then is "cured," it can be a harsh task master for its victims. Winning the fight against tuberculosis depends very largely on the individual's determination and self-control.

While a tuberculosis patient is in the hospital he must do what the doctors know is good for him. However, many patients, unable to accept this discipline, leave the hospital before the doctors say they may. A patient who fails in this test of self-control lessens his chances of recovery and endangers the lives of those around him.

But even if a patient does not leave the hospital until the doctors dismiss him, he still faces major tests of self-control, or the rest of his life he must follow instructions on how to take care of himself in order to avoid another attack of the disease. If his self-control is weak, he may lose the fight against the disease. Where victims of tuberculosis are concerned, the reward for self-control may be life itself.

This column is sponsored, in the interest of better health, by: The Fayette County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

TV Proves Inaccurate

TOWSON, Md. (AP)—A plan for exchanging information by television between the Baltimore County Court House and the county office building across the street has been scrapped.

The original idea was to allow citizens to transact all their business with a visit to a single office. Any records to which reference was needed would be flashed on the closed-circuit television screen from the filing department.

But following experiments, county officials said the possibility of error in reading the records was too great. They added that too often face-to-face communication is needed to straighten out errors in the records.

Jury Awards $135,000 In Injury Case

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Federal Court jury Wednesday awarded $135,000 to 23-year-old William Wowra for a brain injury he suffered in a freak accident at a swimming hole four years ago.

While the jury was out, the former star athlete and pre-medical student at Mount Union College wept at the trial table. He said no sum of money could ever restore his partly paralyzed arm and leg.

The verdict—largest damage award in Cleveland Federal Court history—was against the H. L. Gentry Construction Co. of Jackson, Mich.

A dynamite blast, set off by Gentry workmen who were laying pipeline near the swimming hole, hurled a two-ounce rock 500 feet, and imbedded it at the base of Wowra's skull.

A doctor testified that the injury not only left the youth partly paralyzed for life but affected his ability "to think in abstract terms" and ruined his chances for a medical career.

Wowra had asked half a million dollars.

Wowra testified in the trial he and two fellow students had gone to the swimming hole near Alliance. They heard a blast and were showered with rocks and debris. He and a companion went ashore.

As Wowra leaned out the window of the car to call to the other swimmer, a second blast went off and the rock hit him.

Wowra, an only child, lives with his parents at Clinton, near Barborton.

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—An armed robber apparently came back for a chaser after holding up a Topeka liquor store Wednesday night.

A clerk reported to police a tall slender man held up the store about 9 p.m. and escaped with about $50.

A few minutes before 11 p.m.

closing time, the clerk again called police to report the robber had returned after changing clothes. This time he ordered a pint of vodka and paid for it, the clerk said.

A Fine Move By President Eisenhower

Many people see a brilliant move by President Eisenhower in appointing Senator Walter F. George of Georgia as the president's personal representative to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Senator George has announced that he will not seek re-election to the U. S. Senate and if he had tried to run, because of his age, might have been defeated by former Governor Herman Talmadge of Georgia in the Democratic primary.

Under these circumstances, Senator George who has served his country and his state as a real statesman should, has an opportunity to do further fine service in the cause of peace in which he has been an outstanding figure.

There are innumerable Americans, in Georgia as elsewhere, who consider it tragic that the services of this veteran chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee should be lost to his nation.

Thanks in part to the bipartisan foreign policy of the Eisenhower administration, and thanks also to President Eisenhower's warm and lively admiration of the great Georgia senator to whom his own foreign policy owes so much, those services will not be lost.

If it be thought that President Eisenhower has conferred a "sine" favor upon this Democratic statesman, which is certainly the case, also let that thought be balanced by another. Through Sen. George the GOP administration will be acquiring perhaps the finest mind on foreign affairs in the Democratic Party.

This makes the appointment of Senator George of valuable advantage to the administration and yet is an act which no one can criticize by reason of the known ability and fair-mindedness of the appointee.

Loafer's Glory On March

LOAFER'S GLORY, N. C. — Watch your step, New York: Chicago, beware; look out, Los Angeles; America's most beautiful named community — Loafer's Glory, here in the heart of the Blue Ridge Mountains of western North Carolina—is on the march.

After 55 sleepy years, it is ready for growth. It invites fresh capital and new tired blood. Any one who can tell a tall story well, who can yawn restfully in one of the loveliest settings in the Western Hemisphere, is welcome to become a pioneer in Loafer's Glory's cautiously slow climb to metropolitan stature as the modern Athens of those who put content above worry.

Before investing in Loafer's Glory's future a stranger might well want to know more about the town.

Well, it was founded early in the last century. Today it consists of a bend in the road, 30 acres and five families.

How did Loafer's Glory get its name?

Charles O. Burleson, 62, believes it came from his grandfather, Jonathan.

"There was a country store

sat there by the bridge across Cane Creek," he recalled. "In the evenings the fellows came to father's store to play checkers, pitch horseshoes and spin yarns.

"Granddaddy passed by once and said: 'It's just a loafer's glory.' Somehow the name stuck. The old settlers liked the name. Most of them are gone now."

Tourists often zip through this valley of the carefree without even knowing it.

"Used to be a highway sign here saying 'Loafer's Glory,' explained Burleson, "but it rotted and fell down, and nobody thought to put it back up.

"I was born here in the same house my daddy was. He was 86 when he passed away in 1947, and the town lost its last good whittler. I don't whittle myself."

Loafer's Glory met its greatest disaster in the famous flood of May, 1901.

"It was a big flood," said Burleson. "Five buildings—the general store, too—were washed away, and one man had to tie his wagon to a tree to keep it from being washed away."

Burleson, a former master sergeant, is now retired after serving through three wars during a total of 22 in-and-out years with Uncle Sam's armed forces.

"The best of the people here" he said "are hard-working tobacco farmers. I'm the only real loafer left."

"Oh, you wet a fishhook in the creek now and then," objected Fred Garland, proprietor of the new general store which stocks everything from snuff to overalls.

Garland is the unofficial president of the Chamber of Commerce and is determined to put Loafer's Glory back on the map. He is after the state highway department to put up a new sign. He has just paid out $5 apiece for two old hemlock benches from a remodeled church which he plans to put in front of his store to welcome all serious loafers. "I'll provide free wood for the whittlers," he said, "but I'll have to charge them for the knives."

It may take Loafer's Glory a long time to overtake New York (it doesn't even have a subway yet) but no one is in a real hurry. That's the nice thing about Loafer's Glory. Plus the fact there isn't a town in America with a better sense of humor.

Breathing Too Fast
Just More Trouble

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Do you breathe too rapidly or too deeply? Many persons actually overbreathe and get only trouble for their efforts.

Overbreathing, or hyperventilation, occurs when the rate or depth of respiration is greater than that needed to satisfy the oxygen requirements of your body.

Less Oxygen

This means that your body loses a greater amount of carbon dioxide with the result that your hemoglobin clings more tightly to the bound oxygen. Thus, less oxygen is distributed to the tissues as your blood courses through your body.

In the brain, and other sensitive tissues, this lack of oxygen is apt to have immediate effects. You may develop a giddy feeling or even lose consciousness, your face may become flushed, your vision may be blurred and your hands may tingle and feel numb.

By this time you realize something is wrong. Since you apparently have no control over what is happening, you might become panicky. And this will add to your symptoms.

Hyperventilation can be caused by various things.

Exertion, especially excessive running, sometimes sets up an overbreathing cycle in apparently healthy individuals. They simply can't reduce the rate and depth of breathing after it has been automatically increased by the exertion.

Exposure to cold, fear, pain or other strong emotional upsets might start hyperventilation to prepare you for flight or fight. It is a natural response to such stimulants.

Maybe you'll launch an episode of overbreathing by frequently yawning or sighing to relieve anxiety or tension. Eventually this sighing might become deep enough to produce hyperventilation.

Sometimes persons actually develop a habit of overbreathing upon finding themselves in an unpleasant situation.

For example, you might light a cigarette when under tension or an obese person may seek consolation in food.

ANSWER: Usually, in women in whom menstruation has ceased for this period of time, there is no chance of becoming pregnant.

New Idle Pay Claims Decline

COLUMBUS — The Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reports that claims of newly unemployed were reduced during the week of May 12 along with those of claimants unemployed one week or more.

The bureau said there were 7,521 new claims for the week ended May 12 compared with 7,086 the previous week. Continuing claims totaled 47,521 for the week ended May 12 compared with 45,341 the previous week.

Retired Executive Faces Accusation

CLEVELAND — A respected, retired Akron rubber executive has been charged with malicious entry into a bank.

Lakewood police filed the charge, which carries a 20-year-to-life prison sentence, against E. Waldo Stein, 65, one-time Firestone Rubber Co. engineer.

Police said he tried to rob the Cleveland Trust Co.'s Madison Ave. branch Tuesday. Stein stoutly maintained his innocence.

Charles Donohue, Lakewood police prosecutor, said the "malicious entry" charge was equivalent to attempted bank robbery.

They Try Too Hard In Politics

Whereas to the professors, politics is the science of government, to the politician, politics is the art of getting on in public affairs. It is all a matter of viewpoint and, while the professors would recognize those aspects of government that do not appear to be perfect, the politician knows that in a free society most of the people want to be left alone to their own devices and are willing to pay for it, if the tax is not too high.

The professional politician often prefers to let amateurs, or rather unprofessionals, take the lead in an election year because it looks better. The professional figures that in the end he will manipulate the situation so that he has what he needs which is not the power to articulate philosophies of government and principles of statecraft, but patronage. For it is patronage which keeps a party together and while many denounce it, all professionals practice it. And somehow, it does not take an outsider long to understand that even if he got a public position by accident, if he wants re-election, he must keep his organization together and that means patronage. This is what Governor Allan Shivers may have learned as a result of his contest for power with Lyndon Johnson in Texas. Party loyalty, in that election, paid off.

In such a contest as now is taking place in the Democratic party, it needs to be noted that Stevenson and Harriman are not regarded as professionals whereas Kefauver and Lyndon Johnson are. To the active manipulator of political votes either in conventions or in Congress, it is not so very important who gets the nomination for President, so long as he is a good guy who understands political organization and sees to it that the patronage in each state goes to the right man. Party loyalty is demanded of unprofessionals and mug-wumps are usually disliked.

During the first year of the Eisenhower administration, patronage was being used to kill off the Taft forces in each state. Taft died and time healed old wounds and a number of Taft followers were given good positions in the government, some even close to President Eisenhower. In New York State, however, all patronage continued to go to Thomas E. Dewey who is one of the most skillful professional politicians in the country, but could not do for himself what he did for Eisenhower, get into the White House. Whereas the Taft people can get along with most of the Eisenhower people, and realistically have to, none of them want to get along with Dewey in any political enterprise upon which he may engage.

This creates a bit of a situation when it is rumored that it has become impractical for the Republicans to nominate Jacob K. Javits for the United States Senate to run against the aged Herbert Lehman who will be re-nominated by the Democrats. Therefore, it is being suggested that Tom Dewey run for U. S. Senator with the blessings of the Eisenhower administration.

In the old days, when Dewey was Governor of the State of New York, it was necessary for every practical Republican politician to cater to his ego, to bow before his shrine in order to get state patronage. Now that Averell Harriman is Governor, the state patronage goes to the Democrats anyhow, so why should a Republican worry about Dewey? The only reason is that Dewey still controls the federal patronage which is mostly disposed of, anyhow, by him. So actually there is no reason why any Republican leader should take his votes to Tom Dewey and most of them will not. Therefore, if the Eisenhower political manipulators impose Dewey upon the New York State Republicans, they might have to accept him as a nominee, but does that mean that they will have to vote for him on election day? Not at all. Most of the party professionals will do the best they can to defeat Dewey and to get him out of their hair, as it were.

And that is the talk that is going around here in both Republican and Democratic circles. In the latter, they still think that Dewey will make a stab at the vice presidency if any veritable opposition to Nixon arises, which Republicans who will be convention delegates do not believe will happen.

The Nation Today

James Marlow

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON — This 84th Congress, run by the Democrats, is setting no speed record. Unless it gets a move on, you'll hear a lot about it from the Republicans in the campaign.

Republicans still smart from President Truman's attacks on what he called the 80th "do-nothing" Congress in 1948. They were running it then. They'll be happy to reply in kind this year if the Democrats give them a chance.

As a sign of things to look for: President Eisenhower was critical of this 84th Congress when it finished its first session last summer. It's done less so far in this session. It still has a couple of months to go.

In this session Congress has passed only four pieces of major legislation and Eisenhower vetoed two of them: the farm bill and a bill to take direct federal control off the prices natural gas producers could charge. The other two: present corporation and excise tax levels were continued for another year; construction of a 760-million-dollar system of power dams and irrigation projects in the upper Colorado River area was authorized.

The Senate last year, and the House this year, have approved highway program bills. But they differ. There can be no final action till both houses agree.

Last year the 84th Congress passed a lot of legislation which the Democrats said was good, no matter how Eisenhower felt about it.

This was the record in 1955: The reciprocal trade program was continued another three years; the small business administration was continued for two years; the military draft law was extended; corporation and excise taxes were continued a year.

The first session also gave Eisenhower a free hand in defending Formosa, passed a new military reserve program he wanted, boosted the national debt limit, raised the minimum wage for workers in interstate commerce from 75 cents to $1 an hour, and raised the pay of most people working for the government, including judges and members of Congress.

The Senate last year ratified three major treaties: mutual assistance for the defense of Formosa, bringing West Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and Austrian independence.

Nevertheless, on Aug. 4, 1955, Eisenhower looked at this record after Congress went home for the year and said there were nine items upon which he particularly had urged action left undone.

They were: federal aid to education, a health program, a highway program, a water resources program, broadened benefits for survivors of members of the armed forces; statehood for Hawaii; revision of the immigration law; an act to simplify the customs laws; and money for an atomic "peace" ship.

He praised the first session for what it had done in helping him in the foreign field. The fault he found was with what hadn't been done domestically.

The Democrats came back this year in no mood to rush things. Still hanging fire—either because only one House has passed them or because they still are in committees—are these items:

A soil bank program, postal rate increases, new public housing, federal aid to education, changes in the immigration law, statehood for Hawaii, health insurance, and others.

FRANK COSTELLO, saying goodbye to a reporter in New York who had covered his income tax evasion case, is tapped by the long arm of the law—a federal marshal's—to be taken away to a five-year prison sentence.

Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

The Citizenship Clubs of the fifth and sixth grades of Rose Avenue school taught by Mrs. Mary Gillespie and Hugh Rea held a joint meeting last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Max Dice as their guest speaker.

Mrs. Dice's subject was the history of Fayette County and Washington C. H.

She described the life of the early settlers, the difficulties they encountered, the laying out of roads and of their construction. She also told many interesting facts about the Indians living in this area at that time.

Mrs. Dice, in relating the history of Washington Court House, told of the problem the early settlers had in draining the swampy land on which the business section of our town is built. She pointed out the location sites of the early schools of the city.

She told the class of the activities of the "Underground Rail- road" in aiding runaway slaves. She described various methods used in hiding the slaves and moving them on to the next station. She told them of the Haver home which, to this day, has an underground passage that was used for hiding the slaves.

At the close of her talk, she asked if there were any ques- tions and needless to say, for the rest of the period, there was a sea of hands.

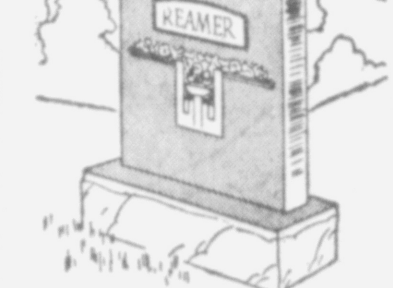

The clubs thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Dice's talk and they learned many things that were new to them both of their county and the city in which they live.

This is a day of reckoning. This is a day of exactness. This is a day when every man must stand up and be counted. Whether you are a watchmaker or a grinder of high-powered lenses... you've got to be good. God demands our best. He is not satisfied with average products. To be out of measurement means the whole of what you are doing is useless. Precision grinding is expected of you if you are to be trusted with the operation of this highly efficient machine. Spiritual Precision is necessary if you are to walk with God.

We also are to work in the field of sensitive minds, hearts, nerves and spirits. This is the realm of spiritual and eternal values. Flesh and blood persons are to be dealt with. Am I as careful in moulding the life of a child as in creating a watch, or a lens, or a pilotless plane? There is no better place to learn of the fundamental workings of God than at the little Church on the corner. Your School Report Card

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

The Citizenship Clubs of the fifth and sixth grades of Rose Avenue school taught by Mrs. Mary Gillespie and Hugh Rea held a joint meeting last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Max Dice as their guest speaker.

Mrs. Dice's subject was the history of Fayette County and Washington C. H.

She described the life of the early settlers, the difficulties they encountered, the laying out of roads and of their construction. She also told many interesting facts about the Indians living in this area at that time.

Mrs. Dice, in relating the history of Washington Court House, told of the problem the early settlers had in draining the swampy land on which the business section of our town is built. She pointed out the location sites of the early schools of the city.

She told the class of the activities of the "Underground Railroad" in aiding runaway slaves. She described various methods used in hiding the slaves and moving them on to the next station. She told them of the Haver home which, to this day, has an underground passage that was used for hiding the slaves.

At the close of her talk, she asked if there were any questions and needless to say, for the rest of the period, there was a sea of hands.

The clubs thoroughly enjoyed Mrs. Dice's talk and they learned many things that were new to them both of their county and the city in which they live.

US Red Envoys Meeting Again

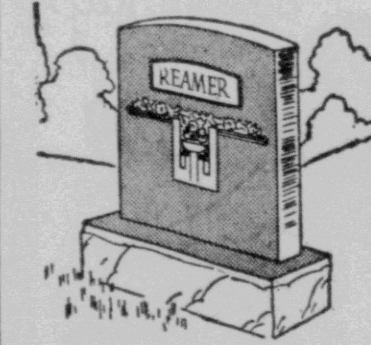

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—Ambassadors U. Alexis Johnson of the United States and Wang Ping-an of Communist China had another meeting today, their 47th since last Aug. 1.

The two were reported still discussing China's imprisonment of 13 American civilians and a U.S. proposal that Peiping renounce the use of force in the settlement of disputes.

You Need The Church-The Church Needs You

Through His Eyes

This is a day of reckoning. This is a day of exactness. This is a day when every man must stand up and be counted. Whether you are a watchmaker or a grinder of high-powered lenses... you've got to be good. God demands our best. He is not satisfied with average products. To be out of measurement means the whole of what you are doing is useless. Precision grinding is expected of you if you are to be trusted with the operation of this highly efficient machine. Spiritual Precision is necessary if you are to walk with God.

We also are to work in the field of sensitive minds, hearts, nerves and spirits. This is the realm of spiritual and eternal values. Flesh and blood persons are to be dealt with. Am I as careful in moulding the life of a child as in creating a watch, or a lens, or a pilotless plane? There is no better place to learn of the fundamental workings of God than at the little Church on the corner. Here, you will hear the Master Workman, as he says, "Inasmuch as you did it unto one of the least of these, you did it unto me."

Mrs. Lanum Is Hostess To Club Members

The May meeting of the Marilee Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Homer Smith, with Mrs. Frank Lanum as hostess.

Ten members were present when Mrs. Herbert Rothrock, president, called the meeting to order and read the poem "Let Beauty Grow." The secretary, Mrs. O. E. Harper, gave a very complete report of the Flower Show and the County Garden Club meeting, and the treasurer's report was given, with both approved as read.

Mrs. Harper read a flower schedule and an invitation from the Monrovia Garden Club at the Monroe Township School for June 4th. A schedule from the Washington C. H. Garden Club was given and a "thank you" note was read from Mrs. John Kneisley, an ill member.

Mrs. Rothrock reported that the window shades for the upstairs windows at Wayne Hall in Good Hope had been purchased and now in use. Securing these blinds was the project for the year. Mrs. O. C. Kibler and Mrs. Rothrock are on the committee to fill the window boxes at the Farmers Bank in Good Hope, which is another project.

"A Spot You Would Like to See Cleared Off and Planted," brought forth various answers during roll call, and different "spots" were discussed. Some of the answers included: places for parks, road side plantings, vacant lots and "our own back yards and alleys."

Mrs. Wash Lough, program leader, was unable to attend and Mrs. Rothrock conducted the program on "Plantings Suitable for Road-sides in Our Community." Nearly all trees and shrubs will grow along the roadside except those requiring acid soil. Flowering trees, shrubs and also fruit bearing trees were suggested and she added that plantings at mail boxes and telephone poles would help at roadside mowing time.

Mrs. Lanum served delicious refreshments, assisted by Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. Herbert Rothrock, which brought the meeting to a close.

Circle Leaders Honored At Afternoon Tea

A large number of ladies assembled in Grace Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon for a very interesting program and tea honoring the circle leaders of The Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Vases of tulips were used to decorate the sanctuary for the occasion.

Mrs. Earl Grimm, president, presided over the program and the opening selection was given by Mrs. B. E. Kelley at the organ. Mrs. John Rhoads sang "Finlandia," accompanied by Mrs. Billie Wilson at the piano. Mrs. Willard Wilson, circle leader of the group with the largest number in attendance, was presented with a gift and an another solo, "Jesus Calls Us," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Rhoads.

Mrs. Grimm introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Mrs. Mary Baker of Columbus, who spoke on the subject "Volunteer Service." She told of the vast amount of volunteer work which has been done by the Methodist women, stressing the time, study and prayer expended by the circle leaders. Outlining some of the additional work to be undertaken in the future she urged everyone to give more and do more so that Christianity can be taken to the ends of the earth. She closed her impressive talk by reading the poem "Glorious Minority," and members repeated the Mizpah benediction, closing the interesting program.

Fellowship Hall was the scene of the social hour which followed and delicious tea delicacies were served from a pale green Damask covered table, centered with a beautiful arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums, surrounded by lighted white tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. L. J. Poe and Mrs. C. L. LeWellen presided at the tea table.

Mrs. Ford Ervin and Mrs. Maurice Sillars served as the committee making arrangements for the event.

Vows Exchanged May 10th In Tucson, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Manford Hamilton of Buena Vista are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Doris Lorraine to Mr. Jackie Rayburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rayburn of Tucson, Arizona, former residents of Centerfield.

Vows were exchanged at one o'clock in the afternoon, Thursday, May 10th, in Tucson, and the newly wedded couple are graduates of Fairfield High School, Leesburg, in the class of 1955. The bride was formerly associated with the Turner Restaurant in Leesburg.

The bridegroom is presently employed at the Banner Mining Co. Copper Mines near Tucson, and while living in Centerfield, he was formerly employed at the McPherson-Huff Tool Co. in Sabina.

The couple have established their home in Tucson.

Country Club Is Scene Of Banquet By BPO Does

The BPO Does held their annual Mother-Daughter banquet Wednesday evening at the Washington Country Club and Mrs. Darrell Williams, president, presented the chaplain, Mrs. Heber Roe, who gave the invocation.

Before introductions were made, Mrs. Williams gave a short welcome to members and their guests. For the serving of the delicious banquet, those present were seated at long tables, decorated with spring flowers and lighted yellow and green tapers in crystal holders.

Following the dinner hour, movies were shown and informal visiting completed the remainder of the evening.

Those serving on the committee planning the event were Mrs. Delbert Carr, Mrs. Leo Fisher, Mrs. Charles Fults, assisted by Mrs. Darrell Williams.

Founders Day Honored At Gibeaut Home

Mrs. Charles Gibeaut, president of Alpha Theta Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority, was a charming hostess Wednesday evening when she entertained members of the chapter at her home.

Mrs. John W. Craig accompanied at the piano for the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," which opened the Founders Day program. Pledge of allegiance to the flag was given and Mrs. Robert Goodson gave the invocation.

Several interesting articles taken from the national magazine were given as follows: "Friendliness of Our Goal," written by Jessie McAdoo, international president, read by Mrs. Gibeaut; "Friendship from the Cup of Life," written by Mim Andersen, Russian director of international, was read by Mrs. Sam Athey; Mrs. Mac Dews, Jr., gave "Our Understanding of Brotherhood," written by E. Robert Palmer, executive president, and Mrs. John W. Craig read "A Salute to ESN Members," written by Mrs. Dixie B. Palmer, international director.

The usual reports were given and approved at the business meeting, and included in the correspondence was a "Thank You" note from Mrs. Dottie Lee, state president, who attended the Mother-Daughter Banquet which was held May 9th. Winners in the sales tax stamp contest were announced and Mrs. David Moore received first prize; Mrs. Charles Gibeaut, second and Mrs. Sam Athey, third. Mrs. Howard Burnett gave a report on the state council meeting which she attended May 6th, in Dayton, and plans were completed for the rummage sale to be held in the Armory May 26th.

Mrs. Gibeaut, president, and Mrs. Athey, vice president, conducted the pledge pin ceremony, a very impressive candlelight service, for Mrs. William H. Hunt, and the educational program was in charge of Mrs. David Moore. She displayed several expensive diamonds, describing each one, and to complete this portion of the program, a film "Diamonds is Forever," was shown by Mr. Robert Montgomery.

At the close of the evening, a delicious dessert course was served by Mrs. Gibeaut assisted by Mrs. John W. Craig.

U. S. Industry Planning Many New Products

Expansion Programs, Research Increase Sharply, Survey Shows

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — If planning will do it Americans are going to have a lot more things—and more new products — in 1959.

The planning is being done by private industry here, and not by government as it would be in Russia.

Industrial leaders have increased their expansion plans and research goals sharply of late. McGraw Hill Publishing Co.'s ninth annual survey, announced today, shows that business as a whole now plans to spend almost 39 billion dollars for new plans and equipment this year, a 30 per cent increase over 1955. This is four billion dollars more than a government prediction in March.

Today's survey shows that business also has plans now to spend another 39 billion in 1957, and that plans already drawn up call for spending more in both 1958 and 1959 than was spent in 1955.

What's more, manufacturing companies say they expect 11 per cent of their 1959 sales to be in products that weren't even made in 1955.

To do this they expect to increase their spending on research and development by 33 per cent to a total of nearly 6½ billion a year by 1959.

Manufacturing capacity, increasing this year by 8 per cent, will be half again as large by the end of the year as it was at the start of the Korean War.

The results of the survey — one of the most optimistic reports on the business future made in recent weeks — top the predictions of the U. S. department of Commerce and the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In March they reported that businessmen had raised their sights since being queried last fall and as of this spring were planning to spend 35 billion dollars this year, a 22 per cent rise over last. The McGraw Hill survey two months later goes the government one better, as well as looking three years further ahead.

Largest outlays for research and development of new products are by chemical, aircraft, machinery, oil, fabricated metal products and instrument companies. But the biggest percentage of growth from 1955 to 1959, as now planned, will be in the primary metals, non-electrical machinery and auto industries.

Rhee's New Aide May Be Opponent

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—President Syngman Rhee, newly elected to a third term, apparently will have a leader of the opposition Democratic party as his vice president.

With only about 250,000 ballots still to be counted in the vice presidential race, Rhee's hand-picked Liberal party running mate trailed the Democrat, Chang Myun, by more than 85,000.

Rhee, 81, backed Lee Ki Poong, National Assembly chairman, for the vice presidency.

Truman Skeptical About Red Aims

PARIS (AP) — Harry S. Truman took a skeptical view today of Soviet Russia's announced plan to cut its armed forces.

"I'll believe it when I see it," said the former President on his arrival with Mrs. Truman for a seven-week tour of Europe.

Asked if he trusted the Russians, Truman snapped out a "no" and said:

"The first year I was in office they broke 32 agreements with me."

Road Program Studied by Congress

Looks like a cut-out of the mythical Minotaur's labyrinth, but it's an airview of Grand Central parkway and Northern boulevard near New York. It speeds traffic safely.

By H. D. CRAWFORD
WASHINGTON — Americans with 61 million motor vehicles roaring over roads so obsolete that 38,000 persons were killed and a million others injured last year, again are looking to Congress to pass legislation to improve highways.

President Eisenhower's $101 billion, 10-year highway program, as well as every other federal alternative road-building program, was dashed to pieces last year against the stubborn roadblocks of rival politics and lobbyist pressures.

Observers in Washington, therefore, are watching with keen interest the new bills, new hearings, and new political maneuverings in this vital election year.

Everybody agrees better roads are needed badly.

Two big questions still have to be answered: Who is going to pay for the costly program? How can highway legislation adequate to fit the nation's needs be enacted without the other political party getting the credit?

President Eisenhower in his State of the Union message this year had this to say:

"LEGISLATION to provide a modern highway system is even more urgent this year than last, for 12 months have now passed in which we have fallen further behind in road construction needed for the personal safety, the general prosperity, the national security of the American people! During the year, the number of motor vehicles had increased from 58 million to 61 million. During the past year over 38,000 persons lost their lives in highway accidents, while the fearful toll of injuries and damage has gone unabated."

The President reminded Congress that in 1955 he urged measures to complete the 40,000 mile interstate system within 10 years, but no program was adopted.

"If we are ever to solve our mounting traffic problem," he added, "the whole interstate system must be authorized as one project, within the specified time.

"AS IN THE case of other pressing problems, there must be an adequate plan of financing. To continue the drastically needed improvement in other national highway systems, I recommend the continuation of the Federal Aid Highway Program."

President Eisenhower last year advocated that a Federal Highway corporation be formed to raise money by selling bonds and get construction under way where it is needed, with the federal government paying 90 percent of the costs.

Congress opposed this method of financing.

This year both parties apparently advocate pay-as-you-build financing.

Treasury Secretary George Humphrey appeared before the House ways and means committee.

"It is now proposed that the program will be financed on a pay-as-you-build basis, rather than a pay-as-you-ride, basis," Humphrey told the committee. "The only decision that remains to be made therefore is the selections of the particular taxes which will provide adequate financing."

Humphrey estimated that over a 12-year period $21 billion in new taxes will be needed to finance the pay-as-you-build program.

SPONSORS believe the pay-as-you build program will save an estimated $11 billion in interest charges, which they say last year's bond proposal would have cost. They propose raising most of the needed funds by increasing taxes on motor fuels, tires and retread rubber.

Passage of a highway construction program suitable for the nation's immediate future needs is a political plum toward which eager hands are extended from both parties. Some observers believe neither party will wish to risk public blame for killing much-needed

Chemist Tells How He Spied For Russians

WASHINGTON (AP) — Thomas L. Black, the Newark, N. J., chemist who allegedly recruited Harry Gold into atomic spying, confessed publicly today to his own career of espionage for Russia.

Black swore he spied first because he wanted to, and for nearly 10 years afterward "because of fear" that he would be killed if he didn't. He told of having ducked a Communist assignment to participate in the 1940 assassination of Leon Trotsky in Mexico.

Black said he still fears he may meet a fate similar to that of Carlo Tresca, a radical he said was slain in an office building in New York City in January 1943. He said Tresca was "tried in Moscow," found to be an "enemy of the working class" and was "executed" by Soviet agents.

Black was the only witness at a public hearing before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee.

The subcommittee, however, placed in evidence the transcript of testimony by another witness who told of having helped to handle in Moscow "thousands" of secret U. S. documents delivered to him by Soviet secret police during World War II.

This witness, a Russian whose identity was discussed under the false name of "E. Andriyev," testified behind closed doors yesterday. He said the secret police had told him it was none of his business how they obtained the "great numbers" of documents, some apparently coming from the Army's Ft. Monmouth radar laboratories.

Railbirds Eye Needles In Preakness

BALTIMORE (AP)—How far and how fast Needles will have to come in about the last quarter of a mile in order to catch the leaders seems to be the main question over tomorrow's $100,000 Preakness.

It is being taken for granted that the Kentucky Derby winner will be at the tailend of the probable eight 3-year-old starters through the early stages of the mile and three-sixteenths race.

The Pimlico barn strategists, and that includes the handlers of Needles, figure that Calumet Farm's Fabius, D. G. Arnstein's Eiffel Blue, W. E. Britt's No Regrets and Winding Way Farm's Golf Ace will be leading the way.

The debate is over how fast they will be going when they hit the stretch and how far Needles will be behind.

"If that Fabius gets out in front by four lengths and still is going in the stretch, he's going to be hard to catch," admitted jockey Dave Erb of Needles.

Needles made up close to five lengths on Fabius in the last half mile of the Derby two weeks ago, but the last turn is tighter and the stretch considerably shorter at Pimlico than Churchill Downs. In the bargain, they have a sixteenth of a mile less to go.

Also, jockey Willie Hartack on Fabius had to move into the lead after three quarters of a mile, which was sooner than he had planned because the pace was so slow. It left him with no reserve for the final sprint.

Birdie Tells Why He Put Klu On Bench

NEW YORK (AP)—Birdie Tebbetts still bears a few scars from "The Benching of Ted Kluszewski," a melodrama with a happy ending. But if he had to, the Cincinnati manager would do it again.

"A manager is paid to put the best nine men on the field," said Tebbetts said. "When he begins to manage names, he's not earning his money. I'm going to try to earn my money by getting the best possible men out on the field. Names can't win for you unless they produce."

Kluszewski, of course, is back on first base after whittling down his weight from 247 to 237 by hard work and dieting.

"Kluszewski is my first baseman, period," said Tebbetts. "But I've got the greatest utility first baseman in the majors in George Crowe, in case I need him."

How did it happen? What made Tebbetts draw the wrath of the fans who idolize Kluszewski by benching his big man?

"He was overweight," he answered. "And don't confuse that with out of shape. When you're out of shape you have no excuse. It's your own fault. When you're overweight, you might have an excuse. Klu did have an excuse. He had to sit out most of spring training with that bad back.

"Klu was up to 247. He wasn't hitting but I wasn't worried about that because he always starts slow. The trouble was that ground balls were just rolling by him."

"They've tried to make out there is some sort of feud between Klu and me. But it's not so. I think he will be a better ball player for the benching."

Trials Slated Tomorrow At 500 Speedway

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The field for the 40th 500-mile auto race May 20 will be determined by 10-mile trials tomorrow at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Missing from the entries this year is Jerry Hoyt, who won the pole position last year; Jack McGrath, who set a qualifying record of 142.58 miles per hour, and Bill Vukovich, Indianapolis winner in 1954 and 1955.

All three have died in racing accidents in the last year. Vukovich while leading the 500 in 1955. Vukovich's 1954 record of 131.68 miles per hour for the actual race still stands.

It's a hazardous game but the field is dominated by men who have survived years of racing. Paul Russo of Inglewood, Calif., who ran an unofficial practice lap at 146.6 Wednesday in a new Novi, is a 42-year-old veteran of 10 Indianapolis races.

Sam Hanks of Burbank, Calif., who has been practicing over 144 m.p.h. also has started 10 Indianapolis classics. Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., practicing in the same bracket, is a nine-time 500 starter.

Bob Sweikert of Indianapolis, the 1955 winner, is back for his fifth start with a new four-cylinder Kuzma car called the D-A Lubricant Special.

Only 85 New Polio Cases Reported

WASHINGTON (AP)—Only 85 new cases of polio were reported last week, compared with 205 in the corresponding week last year.

A Public Health Service spokesman said "the present reports look very favorable but it is still too early to say what impends for the remainder of the year."

The 85 cases during the week ended May 12 compared with 101 in the similar week of 1952, which became the record year for polio. In each of the two preceding weeks this year the number of cases had been identical with those in the corresponding 1952 weeks.

Farm Machinery Show Assured

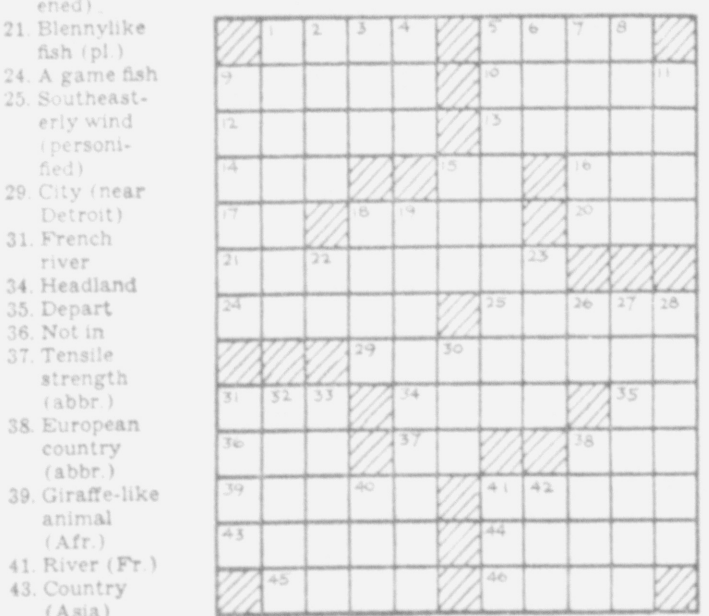

COLUMBUS (AP)—The first large-scale farm machinery exhibit at the Ohio State Fair since 1953 is assured for the 1956 fair.

Harry Dotson, assistant state fair manager, says members of the Columbus Tractor Club have each been allocated 2,400 square feet of exhibit space under two

Trader Lane Ignores Fans' Anguished Cry

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Frank Lane, whose major reshuffling of the St. Louis Cardinals has the club's fans somewhat shell-shocked and many fighting mad, sums up his motive this way:

"I'd rather have a nasty bunch of so-and-sos in first place than a good sentimental seventh-place club."

Newspaper switchboards here were swamped yesterday with callers—most of them unhappy at the news Bill Virdon, the National League's rookie of the year in 1955, had been traded.

But the latest of the Cardinal general manager's rapid-fire deals (sending Virdon to Pittsburgh for outfielder Bobby Del Greco and pitcher Dick Littlefield) apparently didn't equal the big trade of a week ago in producing howls of anguish.

In that one, Lane sent pitchers Harvey Haddix, Stu Miller, and Ben Flowers to Philadelphia for pitchers Murry Dickson and Herman Wehmeier.

Before Lane arrived on the scene last year to take over direction of the seventh-place Cardinals there was much talk of a Cardinal youth movement and a gradual rebuilding job.

Now Lane may be shooting for the pennant this year, with the club off to a fast start under its new manager, Red Huchinson.

"I feel the team is a better all-around club now than when we started the season," Lane said yesterday. He isn't flatly predicting a pennant this year but says he now has a "contending ball club."

Groza, Lahr Sign New Browns Pacts

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns have signed two veteran players, Lou Groza and Warren Lahr, to 1956 contracts.

Groza, a tackle, was on the first Browns team 10 seasons ago. Since the Browns joined the National Football League six seasons ago, he has kicked 224 conversions, 92 field goals and scored one touchdown, for 506 points.

Lahr, a defensive back, is coming back for his eighth season with the Browns. He has intercepted 37 passes, including five in each of the last five seasons.

Railbirds Eye Needles In Preakness

BALTIMORE (P)—How far and how fast Needles will have to come in on the last quarter of a mile in order to catch the leaders seems to be the main question over tomorrow's $100,000 Preakness.

It is being taken for granted that the Kentucky Derby winner will be at the tailend of the probable eight 3-year-old starters through the early stages of the mile and three-sixteenths race.

The Pimlico barn strategists, and that includes the handlers of Needles, figure that Calumet Farm's Fabius, D. G. Arnstein's Eiffel Blue, W. E. Britt's No Regrets and Winding Way Farm's Golf Ace will be leading the way.

The debate is over how fast they will be going when they hit the stretch and how far Needles will be behind.

"If that Fabius gets out in front by four lengths and still is going in the stretch, he's going to be hard to catch," admitted jockey Dave Erb of Needles.

Needles made up close to five lengths on Fabius in the last half mile of the Derby two weeks ago, but the last turn is tighter and the stretch considerably shorter at Pimlico than Churchill Downs. In the bargain, they have a sixteenth of a mile less to go.

Also, jockey Willie Hartack on Fabius had to move into the lead after three quarters of a mile, which was sooner than he had planned because the pace was so slow. It left him with no reserve for the final sprint.

Birdie Tells Why He Put Klu On Bench

NEW YORK (P)—Birdie Tebbetts still bears a few scars from "The Benching of Ted Kluszewski," a melodrama with a happy ending. But if he had to, the Cincinnati manager would do it again.

"A manager is paid to put the best nine men on the field," said Tebbetts said. "When he begins to manage names, he's not earning his money. I'm going to try to earn my money by getting the best possible men out on the field. Names can't win for you unless they produce."

Kluszewski, of course, is back on first base after whittling down his weight from 247 to 237 by hard work and dieting.

"Kluszewski is my first baseman, period," said Tebbetts. "But I've got the greatest utility first baseman in the majors in George Crowe, in case I need him."

How did it happen? What made Tebbetts draw the wrath of the fans who idolize Kluszewski by benching his big man?

"He was overweight," he answered. "And don't confuse that with out of shape. When you're out of shape you have no excuse. It's your own fault. When you're overweight, you might have an excuse. Klu did have an excuse. He had to sit out most of spring training with that bad back. "Klu was up to 247. He wasn't hitting but I wasn't worried about that because he always starts slow. The trouble was that ground balls were just rolling by him. "They've tried to make out there is some sort of feud between Klu and me. But it's not so. I think he will be a better ball player for the benching."

Trials Slated Tomorrow At 500 Speedway

INDIANAPOLIS (P)—The field for the 40th 500-mile auto race May 30 will be determined by 10-mile trials tomorrow at Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Missing from the entries this year is Jerry Hoyt, who won the pole position last year; Jack McGrath, who set a qualifying record of 142.58 miles per hour, and Bill Vukovich, Indianapolis winner in 1954 and 1955.

All three have died in racing accidents in the last year; Vukovich while leading the 500 in 1955. Vukovich's 1954 record of 131.68 miles per hour for the actual race still stands.

It's a hazardous game but the field is dominated by men who have survived years of racing. Paul Russo of Inglewood, Calif., who ran an unofficial practice lap at 146.6 Wednesday in a new Novi, is a 42-year-old veteran of 10 Indianapolis races.

Sam Hanks of Burbank, Calif., who has been practicing over 144 m.p.h. also has started 10 Indianapolis classics. Tony Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Ill., practicing in the same bracket, is a nine-time 500 starter.

Bob Sweikert of Indianapolis, the 1955 winner, is back for his fifth start with a new four-cylinder Kuzma car called the D-A Lubricant Special.

Only 85 New Polio Cases Reported

WASHINGTON (P)—Only 85 new cases of polio were reported last week, compared with 205 in the corresponding week last year.

A Public Health Service spokesman said "the present reports look very favorable but it is still too early to say what impends for the remainder of the year."

The 85 cases during the week ended May 12 compared with 101 in the similar week of 1952, which became the record year for polio. In each of the two preceding weeks this year the number of cases had been identical with those in the corresponding 1952 weeks.

WHS Boys at District Meet

Dozen Trackmen Set For Delaware Meet

An even dozen Washington C. H. High School tracksters are in Delaware today (Friday) for the district track tournament, being held there Friday and Saturday.

The boys are vying for a chance to battle in the state track meet, set for next week. They are competing against youngsters from almost all class A and B schools in the Central Ohio district.

Winners of this meet will have a crack at the top track laurels in the state.

Coach Fred Domenico did not send a regular team up to Delaware today (Friday) for the district track tournament, being held there Friday and Saturday.

Preliminary runs are being held Friday, and winners of these will go into the Saturday semi-finals competition. Only those who can get through the tough Saturday gamut will go on to the state meet.

REPRESENTING Washington C. H. are:

Bobby Hunter in the 100-yd. dash, the 220 yd. dash and the 1/2 mile relay;

David Lee in the high hurdles, the high jump and tentatively in the 1/2 mile relay;

Mer McLean in the 440-yd. d. and tentatively in the 1/2 mile relay;

Jim Wilson in the 1/2 mile run and tentatively in the discus;

Raney Foster in the 100-yd. dash, the 220 yd. dash and the 1/2 mile run;

Ronnie Kelley in the mile and the 1/2 mile;

Bill Johnson in the 440 yd. dash; Eldon Brown in the pole vault and tentatively in the discus;

Dan Miller in the pole vault; Dan Schlichter in the shot put and the discus;

Jack Bainter in the 1/2 mile relay; and Wayne Rehm in the 1/2 mile relay.

Winger Pacing Kansas City Open

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Oklahoma City's Bo Winger shot five straight birdies for an eight-under-par 64 for a one-stroke lead going into today's second round of the $22,500 Kansas City Open.

Bob Rosburg of San Francisco, shooting in the same threesome with Winger, caught the fever and came in with a 65.

Tied for third at 67 were two Texans, Don January of Abilene and Billy Maxwell of Odessa.

A bracket of four players at 69 included Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, winner of last week's St. Louis Open.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—With no fields left to conquer and a law school education to pay for, Hayes Allan Jenkins abandoned amateur figure skating today to become the star of a touring ice show.

"There was nothing more to win in competitive skating," the 23-year-old world and Olympic titleholder said. "It's time for me to stand on my own feet in a financial way."

The contract he signed yesterday should give him a fairly sturdy prop. A show spokesman said the Colorado Springs, Colo., star would net about $1,500 weekly.

The longest soccer streak in Dartmouth College history was 18 victories, stretching from mid-season of 1953 through midway in 1955.

Legion Junior Baseball Meeting and Tryouts Set for Next Sunday

With a feeling that Spring will come to Fayette County eventually, the committee in charge of the American Legion baseball program has called a meeting of all boys from 15 through 17 years old at Legion Hall at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Francis Morgan, a member of the committee, explained that the committee wanted the boys to get acquainted first and then go out to a field for tryouts and practice.

Morgan said the committee was not yet certain what field would be used but he mentioned three possibilities—the new one at the park on Millikan Avenue, the one at the NCR plant on South Fayette Street and the high school field on Circle Avenue.

A playing field has been one of the problems confronting the Legion committee from the start. When Wilson Field on Oakland Avenue was converted into the park for the Little League, there was no public field readily available until the new one at the park was put in shape. This one is now virtually complete now, although some minor work remains to be done.

Morgan explained that while the Legion Junior program ordinarily takes in boys younger than the 13-year-old minimum set this year, the committee set up the age limit for two reasons: (1) to coordinate it with the Little League for the young boys and the Babe Ruth League for boys in the next higher age bracket.

THUS, there is now a three-ply

SWO Loop Sets Sunday Games

Undefeated Leaders May Extend Leads

The three leaders of the SWO League—Good Hope, Jeffersonville and Wilmington—all have better-than-even chances of keeping their records perfect after this Sunday's games.

Each of the three has a record of two wins and no losses going into this, the third round of the season. And none of three will meet a team that hasn't lost at least one game.

Good Hope is slated to play host on the Good Hope diamond to Hillsboro (1-1) and Jeff will travel to meet Chillicothe Reformatory (0-1). Wilmington will play a home game with the men from Bainbridge (0-2).

Fayette County's third SWO entry (in addition to Good Hope and Jeff) is Milledgeville (0-2). Milledgeville will play on its home diamond, facing Blanchester (0-1).

The ninth team in the loop, which will draw the week's bye, is Chillicothe Businessmen.

The league standings, going into Sunday's games:

Good Hope (2-0)
Jeffersonville (2-0)
Wilmington (2-0)
Businessmen (1-1)
Hillsboro (1-1)
Blanchester (0-1)
Reformatory (0-1)
Bainbridge (0-2)
Milledgeville (0-2)

Handle more tonnage with less power—the result of 36-inch "cut-and-throw" knives exclusive in the Allis-Chalmers Forage Harvester. Quick-change Slide-Lock attachments and built-in knife sharpener avoid lost time.

Now for added performance, Allis-Chalmers offers a new Heavy-Duty Grass Attachment—heavier frame and side sheets, outer reel support, and heavy-crop draper assembly with "sealed-for-life" bearings.

For windrow work, a new "No-Wrap" draper pickup attachment with spring times fits right over the cutter bar—ideal for long wilted hay or viny crops; saves leaves without wrapping or winding.

Come in. Get the latest in Big-Tonnage chopping. We'll be glad to give you the full story.

Favorites Falter At Lebanon Trots

LEBANON (AP)—Favorites failed to make the grade last night in either of the two $500 featured harness races at the Lebanon Raceway.

Betty's Folly, owned by H. E. and R. C. Beatty of Washington C. H. and driven by H. E. Beatty, finished out in front in the class CC pace in 2:10.3 while the favored The Whizz finished second.

Huldah's Chief won the class 25 pace in 2:08.3. He is owned by Mrs. Malcolm Arthur of Grand Junction, Colo., and was driven by Bill Haworth of Blanchester. Doctor Bill, the top favorite, finished second.

Willie Mays leads the active New York Giants in the single season records. He hit 51 homers last year, drove home 127 runs and stole 24 bases. In 1954 he batted .345 to lead the Giants and the National League.

Teens to Vie In Road-e-o Here

Road Test, Written Exam Are Scheduled

The second weekend of teen-age road-e-o competition will begin this Saturday at 2 P. M. in the Dayton Power & Light Company auditorium with the administration of written road-e-o tests to a second group of teenagers from around Fayette County.

And Sunday, the competition will really be on in earnest as all the teenagers who have taken the written test go out to the special obstacle course on Main Street between Paint and Temple to show their stuff on the road.

A first round of written tests was held at DP&L last Saturday, but the turnout was small, and the Jaycees, who are sponsoring the road-e-o here, thought they could get better results by holding a second session this week.

Written testing is intended to indicate how much youngsters know about the laws of the road, and how much of their driving skill they can indicate on paper.

Since handling the car on the road is what really indicates the difference between good and bad drivers, the road test has been instituted.

Sunday's obstacle-course test is a tough one, but the stakes are high. A teenager who gets through it should have a real sense of accomplishment.

BIG LURE in the Sunday test is the free trip to Euclid (that's just outside of Cleveland) June 16 for the state-wide finals. One boy and one girl from Washington C. H. will win the trip.

In the statewide contest, the competition may be tougher, but the prizes are even greater. Scholarships will go to the state winners, plus free trips to the national contest in Washington D. C. later this summer. In addition, there are lesser prizes for runners-up.

Sunday's obstacle course here, laid out by Jaycee Bob Boyd, is a four-part wonder that will really indicate the youngster's driving skill.

First on the docket is the rubber-ball test, whereby a teenager has to negotiate a car past eight closely-placed rubber balls without knocking them off their perches. It's something many more experienced drivers would have difficulty doing.

Following the rubber ball test comes the "serpentine" test, in which a youngster has to drive between a stanchion and three barrels unscathed.

Execution of a sharp curve, stopping and moving into another lane of traffic comprises the body of the third test. The test ends by having the youngster stop within six inches of the line in the third lane.

Four part of the test involves parallel parking—Jaycee was a comment that the youngsters won't be required to put money in the meters.

Autos, all loaned, to be used for the tests are Chevrolets, Fords, Plymouths and Hudson Hornets.

The Euclid test for the winners will be basically the same, but it will include also a traffic-driving competition.

Bill Williams is general chairman of the event here.

Mrs. Anna Rodgers Dies Here Friday

Miss Grimes Dies In Circleville

Miss Estelle Grimes, 80, died Thursday noon at Berkey Hospital in Circleville. She had been a patient there for nine weeks and had been in failing health since November.

She was born near New Holland and lived in that community for most of her life. She moved to Circleville 30 years ago.

She was a member of the First Methodist Church in Circleville, and of the church's WSCS and Women's Bible Class.

A brother, Albert Grimes, and a sister, Miss Anna Grimes, preceded her in death.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs. Florence Stephenson of Circleville, and a nephew, Dwight Grimes of Canal Winchester.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Saturday at the residence, 222 East Mound Street in Circleville. Rev. C. M. Reed of the First Methodist Church in Circleville will be in charge. Burial, in the family lot in the New Holland Cemetery, will be under the direction of the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home in New Holland.

Friends may call at the residence at any time.

Funeral Is Held For Edmond West

Funeral services for Edmond West, who was widely known in the Buena Vista community where he lived, were held Thursday afternoon at the Littleton Funeral Home in Sabina.

Rev. C. A. Arthur of Leesburg, pastor of the Buena Vista Methodist Church, read from the Scriptures, offered prayer, delivered the funeral sermon and recited the hymn, "Sometime We'll Understand."

Walter Shoop played the organ prelude and postlude on the organ. Pallbearers for the interment in the Sabina Cemetery were Edward and Raymond Corzatti, Harry, Lee and James J. West and Maynard Martin.

Camera Club Will Show Rare Slides

The Fayette Camera Club is sponsoring the second annual showing of the most beautiful color slides of the Columbus International Color Salon, at the Dayton Power and Light Co. auditorium, May 24, at 8 P. M., and the public is invited. Admission is free.

It will be a rare opportunity to see the most beautiful color slides sent in from all over the world, and the slides shown will be the winners out of 2,500 entries in this year's contest.

All slides shown are in color and will be of absorbing interest and highly educational.

A musical program lasting 15 minutes will precede the showing of slides.

Jeff Kids See Columbus Zoo

Pupils Write Notes To Thank Parents

The 65 youngsters in Jeffersonville School's fifth and sixth grades are sending out letters today to thank the teachers and parents who earlier this week took them to the Columbus Zoo.

One of the letters, written to Mrs. Reynolds Slaughter, by Carolyn McClaskie, Jr., describes the trip perfectly:

"I would like to thank you very much for taking me to the zoo, I had a lot of fun even if it did rain."

"The part I liked best was coming home, telling what we liked best at the zoo and the ride we liked best at the park. I liked eating in the car, too."

"But I didn't like the monkey that spit water on me very well. But I had a nice time."

Mrs. Slaughter and Carolyn were among the group of sixth graders and their parents and teachers. The drivers of that group were the teacher, Russell Hall, and six parents, Mrs. Slaughter, Mrs. Charles Ford, Mrs. Myron Smith, Mrs. Mary E. Webb, Bud Mason and Mrs. Ralph Davidson.

CHILDREN FROM Mrs. Jocelyn Harper's fifth grade class were driven to the zoo by Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Robert Owens, Mrs. Kenneth Mickle, Mrs. Howard Keith, and Mrs. John Ritenour.

They were Jean Owens, Linda Sparrow, Sharon Snyder, Virginia Minney, Linda Mabra, Linda Mickle, Diane Houseman, Cheryl Warnock, Peggy Kelley, Sheila Cox, Jane Keith, Caroline Trimble;

Julie Stuckey, Mae Minney, Jane Phillips, Charles Ritenour, Billie Thornberry, Roger Lovett, Joe Palmer, Gary McDonald, Dick Stewart, Bobby Johnson, Homer Hattinger, Lawrence Hurley and Phillip Hankins.

Driving Mrs. Margaret Morrow's split fifth and sixth grade class to Columbus were Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Herbert Garringer, Mrs. Arthur Schlichter, Mrs. John Hare, Mrs. Cecil Long and Mrs. Hugh Morarity.

The pupils are Larry Avey, Sharon Bentley, Donald Bobbit, Cary Sue Bock, Carolyn Bowermaster, Roberta Boyse, Harry Brill, Diane Duncan, Mary Exline, Darlene Tollis;

Charles Garringer, David Hall, Janet Hare, David Lemmings, Judy

Long, Alice May, John Newton, Billy Prater, Bobby Prater, Rise Schlichter and Jimmy Duncan.

Greenfield Elks Sponsor Dances

Two dances are being sponsored by the Elks Lodge of Greenfield next Wednesday. One in the late afternoon, from 5:30 until 7 o'clock is for teen-agers. The other at night, from 9 until 1 o'clock, is for Elks and their guests.

Music for both affairs is to be by Tex Bebeke and his orchestra.

Bebeke, a native Texas, started his musical career with the original Glenn Miller Band in 1938. After the second World War, through which he served in the Navy, he formed his own orchestra and got Miller's permission to use some of his music arrangements.

Bebeke is the saxophone soloist and vocalist with the band. For his Greenfield engagement, he has sent word that the orchestra will be made up of six saxophones, two trombones, three trumpets, piano, bass and drums. It also is to feature Barbara Edwards as a vocalist.

According to article 1 of the by-laws this branch shall be officially called the Washington C. H. Branch of the AAUW.

Thirty women have already met requirements for membership into this new branch and 29 of them were present at the organization meeting.

The branches are designed "to develop programs to challenge the minds of women who have had the privilege of college educations so that they may find ways as educated women to use their training and abilities in building better communities and in solving crucial problems of our times."

AS SOON as the by-laws were voted on and adopted, Mrs. Colin Campbell was elected president; Mrs. Frank Mayo, vice president; Mrs. Charles Pensyl, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack White, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. W. A. Smith, treasurer.

Mrs. Carl Hirsch, parliamentarian of the Chillicothe branch, came to add her counsel and experience in helping the group make a good start.

In addition to help given during the business phase of forming the branch, she gave an account of her trip to the annual regional conference of AAUW in Chicago April 27-28.

At the conclusion of her talk, the meeting adjourned with those present enjoying the opportunity of chatting informally.

Light refreshments were served.

Sedition Decision Change Being Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department has endorsed a bill to reverse the April 2 decision of the Supreme Court nullifying state laws against sedition.

A number of Congress members have disputed the court's ruling that Congress intended to occupy the field exclusively when it passed the field laws.

Backing a bill by Sen. Bridges (R-NH) which would declare the field open to both federal and state legal efforts, Dep. Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said the department feels "the federal and state governments can work together easily and well" in the field.

In 1900 about 135 infants out of every 1,000 died before they were one year old. Now we are losing less than 25 out of every 1,000. It is bad to lose any of our precious ones, but good that improved medical techniques and new drugs are helping to save lives.

Childhood diseases can now either be prevented or more easily treated. Among the weapons used in this battle are vaccines, antibiotics, and powerful, but safe antiseptics. All of them are in our pharmacy awaiting the opportunity to help.

Teens to Vie In Road-e-o Here

Road Test, Written Exam Are Scheduled

The second weekend of teen-age road-e-o competition will begin this Saturday at 2 P. M. in the Dayton Power & Light Company auditorium with the administration of written road-e-o tests to a second group of teenagers from around Fayette County.

And Sunday, the competition will really be on in earnest as all the teenagers who have taken the written test go out to the special obstacle course on Main Street between Paint and Temple to show their stuff on the road.

A first round of written tests was held at DP&L last Saturday, but the turnout was small, and the Jaycees, who are sponsoring the road-e-o here, thought they could get better results by holding a second session this week.

Written testing is intended to indicate how much youngsters know about the laws of the road, and how much of their driving skill they can indicate on paper.

Since handling the car on the road is what really indicates the difference between good and bad drivers, the road test has been instituted.

Sunday's obstacle-course test is a tough one, but the stakes are high. A teenager who gets through it should have a real sense of accomplishment.

BIG LURE in the Sunday test is the free trip to Euclid (that's just outside of Cleveland) June 16 for the state-wide finals. One boy and one girl from Washington C. H. will win the trip.

In the statewide contest, the competition may be tougher, but the prizes are even greater. Scholarships will go to the state winners, plus free trips to the national contest in Washington D. C. later this summer. In addition, there are lesser prizes for runners-up.

Sunday's obstacle course here, laid out by Jaycee Bob Boyd, is a four-part wonder that will really indicate the youngster's driving skill.

First on the docket is the rubber-ball test, whereby a teenager has to negotiate a car past eight closely-placed rubber balls without knocking them off their perches. It's something many more experienced drivers would have difficulty doing.

Following the rubber ball test comes the "serpentine" test, in which a youngster has to drive between a stanchion and three barrels unscathed.

Execution of a sharp curve, stopping and moving into another lane of traffic comprises the body of the third test. The test ends by having the youngster stop within six inches of a barrier in the third lane.

Four part of the test involves parallel parking—Jaycee wags comment that the youngsters won't be required to put money in the meters.

Autos, all loaned, to be used for the tests are Chevrolets, Fords, Plymouths and Hudson Hornets.

The Euclid test for the winners will be basically the same, but it will include also a traffic-driving competition.

Bill Williams is general chairman of the event here.

Miss Grimes Dies In Circleville

Miss Estelle Grimes, 80, died Thursday noon at Berger Hospital in Circleville. She had been a patient there for nine weeks and had been in failing health since November.

She was born near New Holland and lived in that community for most of her life. She moved to Circleville 30 years ago.

She was a member of the First Methodist Church in Circleville, and of the church's WSCS and Women's Bible Class.

A brother, Albert Grimes, and a sister, Miss Anna Grimes, preceded her in death.

She is survived by a niece, Mrs. Florence Stephenson of Circleville and a nephew, Dwight Grimes of Canal Winchester.

Funeral services will be held at 2 P. M. Saturday at the residence, 222 East Mound Street in Circleville. Rev. C. M. Reed of the First Methodist Church in Circleville will be in charge. Burial, in the family lot in the New Holland Cemetery, will be under the direction of the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home in New Holland.

Friends may call at the residence at any time.

Funeral Is Held For Edmond West

Funeral services for Edmond West, who was widely known in the Buena Vista community where he lived, were held Thursday afternoon at the Littleton Funeral Home in Sabina.

Rev. C. A. Arthur of Leesburg, pastor of the Buena Vista Methodist Church, read from the Scriptures, offered prayer, delivered the funeral sermon and recited the hymn, "Sometime We'll Understand."

Walter Shoop played the organ prelude and postlude on the organ.

Palbearers for the interment in the Sabina Cemetery were Edward and Raymond Corzatt, Harry, Lee and James J. West and Maynard Martin.

Camera Club Will Show Rare Slides

The Fayette Camera Club is sponsoring the second annual showing of the most beautiful color slides of the Columbus International Color Salon, at the Dayton Power and Light Co. auditorium, May 24, at 8 P. M., and the public is invited. Admission is free.

It will be a rare opportunity to see the most beautiful color slides sent in from all over the world, and the slides shown will be the winners out of 2,500 entries in this year's contest.

All slides shown are in color and will be of absorbing interest and highly educational.

A musical program lasting 15 minutes will precede the showing of slides.

Jeff Kids See Columbus Zoo

Pupils Write Notes To Thank Parents

The 65 youngsters in Jeffersonville School's fifth and sixth grades are sending out letters today to thank the teachers and parents who earlier this week took them to the Columbus Zoo.

One of the letters, written to Mrs. Reynolds Slaughter, by Carolyn McClaskie, Jr., describes the trip perfectly:

"I would like to thank you very much for taking me to the zoo. I had a lot of fun even if it did rain."

"The part I liked best was coming home, telling what we liked best at the zoo and the ride we liked best at the park. I liked eating in the car, too."

"But I didn't like the monkey that spit water on me very well. But I had a nice time."

Mrs. Slaughter and Carolyn were among the group of sixth graders and their parents and teachers. The drivers of that group were the teacher, Russell Hall, and six parents, Mrs. Slaughter, Mrs. Charles Ford, Mrs. Myron Smith, Mrs. Mary E. Webb, Bud Mason and Mrs. Ralph Davidson.

CHILDREN FROM Mrs. Jocelyn Harper's fifth grade class were driven to the zoo by Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Robert Owens, Mrs. Kenneth Mickle, Mrs. Howard Keith, and Mrs. John Ritenour.

They were Jean Owens, Linda Sparrow, Sharon Snyder, Virginia Minney, Linda Mabry, Linda Mickle, Diane Houseman, Cheryl Warnock, Peggy Kelley, Sheila Cox, Jane Keith, Caroline Trimble;

Julie Stuckey, Mae Minney, Jane Phillips, Charles Ritenour, Billie Thornberry, Roger Lovett, Joe Palmer, Gary McDonald, Dick Stewart, Bobby Johnson, Homer Hattinger, Lawrence Hurley and Phillip Hankins.

Driving Mrs. Margaret Morrow's split fifth and sixth grade class to Columbus were Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Herbert Garringer, Mrs. Arthur Schlichter, Mrs. John Hare, Mrs. Cecil Long and Mrs. Hugh Morarity.

The pupils are Larry Avey, Sharon Bentley, Donald Bobbit, Cary Sue Bock, Carolyn Bowermaster, Roberta Boyse, Harry Brill, Diane Duncan, Mary Exline, Darlene Tollis;

Charles Garringer, David Hall, Janet Hare, David Lemmings, Judy

Long, Alice May, John Newton, Billy Prater, Bobby Prater, Riese Schlichter and Jimmy Duncan.

Greenfield Elks Sponsor Dances

Two dances are being sponsored by the Elks Lodge of Greenfield next Wednesday. One in the late afternoon, from 5:30 until 7 o'clock is for teen-agers. The other at night, from 9 until 1 o'clock, is for Elks and their guests.

Music for both affairs is to be by Tex Bebeke and his orchestra.

Bebeke, a native Texas, started his musical career with the original Glenn Miller Band in 1938. After the second World War, through which he served in the Navy, he formed his own orchestra and got Miller's permission to use some of his music arrangements.

Bebeke is the saxophone soloist and vocalist with the band. For his Greenfield engagement, he has sent word that the orchestra will be made up of six saxophones, two trombones, three trumpets, piano, bass and drums. It also is to feature Barbara Edwards as a vocalist.

Majorette Tryouts Set For Saturday

Girls of the sophomore, junior and senior classes of Washington C. H. High School will have an opportunity to try out for majorettes in the WHS marching band next Saturday morning.

William B. Clift, the bandmaster, said the tryouts would be held at the school starting at 9 o'clock. The ambitious twirlers are to meet in the band room and then, weather permitting, they are to go through their performances under the eyes of the judges. Clift did not say who the judges would be.

Two or three places in the ranks of the majorettes, who strut in front of the band as it goes marching down the field, are to be filled this year. There were eight majorettes with the band last year and the number of places to be filled, Clift said, depends on whether two or three girls move out of town with their families.

AAUW Branch Organized Here

Mrs. Colin Campbell Is First President

In a meeting at the home of Mrs. Colin Campbell on the Jeffersonville Pike, a new branch of the American Association of University Women actually came into being here with the adoption of the branch by-laws and the election of officers.

According to article 1 of the by-laws this branch shall be officially called the Washington C. H. Branch of the AAUW.

Thirty women have already met requirements for membership into this new branch and 20 of them were present at the organization meeting.

The branches are designed "to develop programs to challenge the minds of women who have had the privilege of college educations so that they may find ways as educated women to use their training and abilities in building better communities and in solving crucial problems of our times."

AS SOON as the by-laws were voted on and adopted, Mrs. Colin Campbell was elected president; Mrs. Frank Mayo, vice president; Mrs. Charles Pensyl, recording secretary; Mrs. Jack White, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. W. A. Smith, treasurer.

Mrs. Carl Hirsch, parliamentarian of the Chillicothe branch, came to add her counsel and experience in helping the group make a good start.

In addition to help given during the business phase of forming the branch, she gave an account of her trip to the annual regional conference of AAUW in Chicago April 27-28.

At the conclusion of her talk, the meeting adjourned with those present enjoying the opportunity of chatting informally.

Light refreshments were served.

Sedition Decision Change Being Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department has endorsed a bill to reverse the April 2 decision of the Supreme Court nullifying state laws against sedition.

A number of Congress members have disputed the court's ruling that Congress intended to occupy the field exclusively when it passed the field laws.

Backing a bill by Sen. Bridges (R-NH) which would declare the field open to both federal and state legal efforts, Dep. Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said the department feels "the federal and state governments can work together easily and well" in the field.
